CHAPTER 164.

AN ACT to amend sections 60.48 and 61.26, paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of section 62.09 and section 204.20 of the statutes, relating to bonds of the treasurers of towns, cities and villages.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 60.48 and 61.26, paragraph (b) of subsection (4) of section 62.09 and section 204.20 of the statutes are amended to read: 60.48 Every town treasurer shall execute and file an official bond which may be furnished by a surety company as provided by section 204.01 in a sum to be fixed at not less than the whole amount of money estimated to come into his hands during his term.

61.26 The village treasurer shall execute and file an official bond which may be furnished by a surety company as provided by section 204.01. It shall be his duty to receive all moneys belonging or accruing to the village from any source whatever or directed by law to be paid to him; to pay the same only on the written order of the president, countersigned by the clerk and
