Said reporter shall also have the duty to make the proper entries in the judge's docket and to keep such docket under the direction of the judge.

SECTION 2. A new section is added to chapter 358, laws of 1929, to read: (Chapter 358, laws of 1929) Section 10a. The provisions of law applicable to change of venue in the circuit courts of this state shall be applicable to said county court. When a change of venue shall be made pursuant to and as provided by sections 261.04 and 261.05 of the statutes, it shall be direct to the circuit court of the proper county for the trial of the action. In all other cases where a change of venue is made as provided by statute it may be to the circuit court of Door county, or to the circuit court of some other county in a judicial circuit adjoining that in which said Door county is included.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 205.

AN ACT to amend subsection (1) of section 6.32 of the statutes, relating to the election officials in small villages.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (1) of section 6.32 of the statutes is amended to read: (6.32) (1) Except as otherwise provided, there shall be three inspectors, two clerks of election and two ballot clerks at each poll at every election held under the provisions of this title, each of whom shall be a qualified elector in the election district, able to read and write the English language understandingly and not a candidate to be voted for at such election. Provided, however, that at polls where voting machines are used ballot clerks shall not be employed. Not more than two of such inspectors, nor one of said clerks of election, nor one of said ballot clerks, shall be members of the same political party, but each one of said officers shall be a member of one of the two political parties which cast the largest vote in the district at the last preceding general election, the party which cast the largest vote being entitled to two inspectors, one clerk and one ballot clerk, and the party receiving the next largest vote being entitled to the remainder of said officers. The basis for such division shall be the vote of each party for its presidential elector receiving the largest vote, or for its candidate for governor, at the last preceding general election. In villages having less than three hundred inhabitants, the village board may by a two-thirds vote, not less than sixty days prior to any election, provide that there shall be no clerks of election and only one ballot clerk. In such cases the chairman of inspectors at the opening of the polls shall designate one of the inspectors to serve also as clerk of election and the other as one of the ballot clerks. The regular ballot clerk, after close of the polls, shall serve as one of the clerks of election. Such combined services shall be rendered without additional compensation.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 206.

AN ACT to amend subsection (1) of section 5 of chapter 549 of the laws of 1909 as amended by chapter 335 of the laws of 1927, relating to the civil court of Milwaukee county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (1) of section 5 of chapter 549 of the laws of 1909 as amended by chapter 335 of the laws of 1927 is amended to read: (Chapter 549, Laws of 1909) (Section 5) 1. The said civil court shall have jurisdiction and cognizance of the actions and proceedings set forth and enumerated in section 300.05, * * * subsections (2) and (4) of section 300.06, paragraph (d) of subsection (4) of section 71.10, subsection (3) of section 71.16 and sections 74.11, 74.12, 74.13 and 74.30 of the statutes and the acts amendatory thereof, when the amount claimed or involved in such actions or proceedings does not exceed the sum of two thousand dollars; provided that said court shall have jurisdiction of any action founded on an account when the amount
