CHAPTER 384.

AN ACT to amend section 23 of chapter 217, laws of 1929, relating to the Superior court of Dane county.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 23 of chapter 217, laws of 1929, is amended to read: (Chapter 217, laws of 1929) SECTION 23. The said judge of the superior court shall enter an order in writing appointing a suitable person to act as clerk of said court who shall serve at the will of the judge of said court until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified. The clerk so appointed shall subscribe to the oath of office prescribed in the constitution. Said appointment and oath of office shall be filed with the clerk of the circuit court of the county of Dane and a duplicate copy with the city clerk of the city of Madison. Said clerk of the superior court shall receive as compensation the sum of eighteen hundred dollars per annum, until otherwise fixed by the Dane county board, but which shall not be less than eighteen hundred dollars per annum, apportioned and paid monthly, two-thirds out of the treasury of Dane county and one-third out of the treasury of the city of Madison, until otherwise apportioned by the county of Dane and the city of Madison jointly, the same to be in full for all services rendered by said clerk as clerk of the said superior court. When said judge of the superior court is designated as judge of the juvenile court of said county, the clerk of the superior court shall also be the clerk of the juvenile court and shall receive the sum of seven hundred and twenty dollars per annum additional compensation for his services as such clerk of the juvenile court. The clerk of said superior court may with the approval of the judge of said superior court appoint one or more suitable persons to act as deputy clerk or deputy clerks of said court as the Dane county board may provide. The deputy clerk or deputy clerks of said court shall receive such compensation as the Dane county board shall fix, but which compensation shall not be less than nine hundred dollars per annum each, apportioned and paid monthly, two-thirds out of the treasury of Dane county and one-third out of the treasury of the city of Madison, until otherwise apportioned by the county of Dane and the city of Madison jointly. Such deputy clerk or deputy clerks of said superior court shall subscribe to the oath of office prescribed in the constitution. They shall serve at the will of the clerk of said superior court and be subject to removal by said clerk, with the approval of the judge of said superior court. The said clerk of the said superior court or any of the deputy clerks of the said superior court shall make and keep the records of said court, and also the records of the juvenile court of Dane county when the judge of the said superior court is designated as the judge of the juvenile court of said county, and perform all ministerial acts required of them, by and under the direction of the judge; shall have power to administer oaths; take bail, in the absence of the judge, subject to his revision; may examine on oath all persons applying for warrants, may reduce their examination to writing and file the same, and may issue all warrants and other processes from said superior court, or said juvenile court; shall procure under the direction of said judge, at the expense of said Dane county under the direction of the county board thereof, all necessary record books, blanks, stationery, and other things required for said superior court, or said juvenile court; in the absence or disability of the judge the clerk of said court or any deputy clerk thereof may adjourn the said superior court, or juvenile court, in the manner now provided by law for the adjournment of circuit courts.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
