

sanity and mental condition shall, in addition to finding him sane and mentally responsible, also find that he is not likely to have such a recurrence of insanity or mental irresponsibility as would result in acts which, but for insanity or mental irresponsibility, would constitute crimes.

(357.13) (4) Any person committed under the provisions of this section shall at any time after said commitment be entitled to a rehearing as to such sanity as provided by, and according to procedure outlined in, section 51.11, except such person shall make his application for rehearing to the court from which he was committed. If upon such rehearing a jury shall determine he is insane or feeble-minded, then another hearing shall not be had thereafter unless the court which had jurisdiction in the first case shall be satisfied there is reasonable cause to believe that there is an improvement in the person's mental condition, in which case such court may order another jury trial. If it shall be determined, pursuant to any such re-examination, that the insanity or feeble-mindedness of such accused person is incurable he shall be treated and disposed of as persons incurably insane or feeble-minded are required by law to be treated; but no such person shall be removed or discharged from said hospital or home except upon the order of the court having jurisdiction over such person for trial, sentence or commitment.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 263.

AN ACT to amend subsection (2) of section 64.10 of the statutes, relating to a board of police and fire commissioners in cities operating under the city manager plan.

SECTION 1. Subsection (2) of section 64.10 of the statutes is amended to read: (64.10) (2) All administrative boards and commissions existing in such city prior to its reorganization shall continue to exist after its reorganization under this chapter until abolished, altered or reorganized by ordinance of the council. The council shall have power upon the report and recommendation of the city manager to alter, reorganize or abolish by ordinance any administrative board or commission with the exception of the board of education and the board of police and fire commissioners. Each such city not having a board of police and fire commissioners shall provide for the organization of such a board under the provisions of section 62.13 within thirty days after this subsection takes effect.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 264.

AN ACT to create section 51.234 of the statutes, relating to parole of patients of the central state hospital for the insane.

SECTION 1. A new section is added to the statutes to read: 51.234 (1) Whenever in the judgment of the superintendent of the central state hospital for the insane any inmate found to be feeble-minded and committed under the provisions of sections 357.11 and 357.13, and who has not made such recovery as would warrant his return to the court as provided in said sections but who is in a condition to be paroled under supervision, said superintendent shall report the name of such inmate, with a statement of his reasons for his judgment that such inmate should be paroled, to the court which committed such inmate and to the state board of control. If the court does not file objection to the parole of such inmate within sixty days of the date of said report the superintendent may parole such inmate to a relative, legal guardian or other person. In the designation of a parole guardian the person selected shall, where possible, be of the same religious faith as the parents of such inmate. At any time during such parole, upon evidence satisfactory to said superintendent or to the state board of control, such inmate shall be returned to the central state hospital for the insane. Every such parole guardian shall report the physical, moral and mental condition of the inmate to such superintendent, either in person or in writing, as often and
