

No. 625, A.]

[Published March 18, 1933.]

CHAPTER 32.

AN ACT to create subsection (3) of section 29.31 of the statutes, relating to the use of dip nets to catch smelt in streams flowing into Lake Michigan or Green Bay.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new subsection is added to section 29.31 of the statutes to read: (29.31) (3) Dip nets not exceeding eight feet in diameter with a mesh not less than one and one-half inches stretch measure while in use may be used for the taking, catching or killing of smelt in all the streams and rivers flowing into Lake Michigan and the northern and southern parts of Green Bay from March first to April fifteenth, both dates inclusive, of each year, in that part of such streams beginning at the mouth and extending ten miles inland.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved March 17, 1933.

No. 27, S.]

[Published March 23, 1933.]

CHAPTER 33.

AN ACT relating to the Wisconsin Chicago Centennial of Progress Committee, and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The Wisconsin Chicago Centennial of Progress Committee is increased from eight to fifteen members. As soon as possible after passage of this act the governor shall appoint three additional members, the lieutenant governor two additional senators, and the speaker of the assembly two additional assemblymen. Vacancies in the membership of the committee now existing or which may occur hereafter shall be filled, during or subsequent to the legislative session, by the governor if the vacancy occurs among the public representatives on the committee, by the lieutenant governor if it occurs among the representatives from the senate, and by the speaker if among the representatives from the assembly.