CHAPTER 356.

AN ACT to amend subsection (4) of section 47.08 and section 129.02 of the statutes, relating to blind persons receiving a peddler's license without paying a fee.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (4) of section 47.08 and section 129.02 of the statutes are amended to read: (47.08) (4) The county board shall appoint a regular practicing physician, whose official title shall be "Examiner of the Blind and Deaf," and whose duty it shall be to examine all applicants for pensions and peddlers' licenses, and to indorse on the application a certificate showing whether such applicant is blind, or blind and deaf, as the case may be, and file the application so endorsed in the office of the county clerk. Such examiner shall keep a register in which he shall enter the name and address of each applicant so examined, and the date and result of such examination. Such examiner shall be paid by the county for his services the sum of two dollars for each applicant for a pension so examined, and each such applicant for a peddler's license shall pay for his own examination, not to exceed two dollars.

129.02 Every person desiring to engage in or follow the business or occupation mentioned in section 129.01, before he shall be entitled to a license authorizing him so to do, shall pay into the state treasury an annual license fee; as follows: Where he shall use in such business or occupation a wagon or other vehicle, drawn by two or more horses, or other beasts of burden, or automobile or other vehicle or conveyance propelled by any mechanical power, the sum of seventy-five dollars; where he shall use in such business or occupation a wagon or other vehicle drawn by one horse, or other beast of burden, the sum of forty-five dollars; where he shall use in such business or occupation a push or hand-cart, or other vehicle not drawn by horses, or other beasts of burden, the sum of thirty dollars; and where he shall conduct such business on foot by means of pack, basket or other means for carrying merchandise on foot, the sum of twenty dollars; except that any ex-soldier of the world war who has been a bona fide resident of this state for at least five years preceding the application and who has a twenty-five per cent disability or more or has tuberculosis or cardiac disability recognized by the United States veterans' bureau shall upon presenting satisfactory proof of compliance with these conditions to the department of agriculture and markets be granted a special license without payment of any fee and except further that any person examined and declared blind under subsection (4) of section 47.08 of the statutes who has been a bona fide resident of this state for at least five years preceding the application, shall upon presenting to the department of agriculture and markets, a certificate from the county clerk, as proof of such disability, be granted a special license without payment of any fee; provided, that such ex-soldier or blind person shall at all times while engaged in such business or occupation carry on his person such special license and the proof required for the issuance of the same, and provided further that such blind person shall also at all times carry on his person a picture of himself which is not more than three years old. Any such license so issued to a blind person shall not entitle the holder thereof to peddle for hire for another person.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
