CHAPTER 429.

AN ACT to amend subsections (6) and (7) of section 201.39 of the statutes, relating to interinsurance.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsections (6) and (7) of section 201.39 of the statutes are amended to read: (201.39) (6) The attorney in fact shall have on hand at all times assets in cash or securities authorized by the laws of the state in which the principal office of the exchange is located for the investment of funds of insurance companies doing the same kind of business an amount equal to one hundred per cent of the net unearned premiums or deposit collected and credited to the account of subscribers, or fifty per cent of the net annual advance premium or deposits collected and credited to the account of subscribers on policies having one year or less to run, and pro rata on those for a longer period. In addition to the foregoing * * * there shall be * * * maintained in cash or such securities assets * * * sufficient to dis- *charge all liabilities on * * * all outstanding losses * * * arising under policies issued, the same to be calculated in accordance with the laws of the state relating to similar reserves for companies insuring similar risks.* Net premiums or deposits as used in this section shall be construed to mean the advance payments made by subscribers before deducting therefrom the amount provided in the subscriber's agreement for expenses, provided, however, that insurance organizations subject to the provisions of this section collecting expense funds separate from other premiums or deposits shall carry such a reasonable reserve on such expense items as may be required by the commissioner of insurance in accordance with section 201.18. In no case shall the reserves required be less than the reserves required of other insurers by the statutes of this state, including the provisions of sections 201.18, 204.27 and 204.28 and any membership fee, policy fee or application fee shall be included in the deposit and charges against which reserves must be carried as provided herein. If at any time the assets on hand are less than the foregoing requirements or less than one hundred thousand dollars, whichever is the greater when the attorney in fact is exchanging contracts covering employers' liability or workmen's compensation, or automobile insurance, the subscribers, or their attorney in fact for them shall make up the deficiency within thirty days after notice from the commissioner of insurance so to do. Whenever such assets are less than the amount above required, or less than fifty thousand dollars, whichever is the greater, if the attorney in fact is exchanging contracts other than those covering employers' liability or workmen's compensation or automobile insurance, the subscribers, or their attorney in fact for them shall make up the deficiency within thirty days after notice from the commissioner of insurance so to do. No obligation for borrowed money shall be incurred on behalf of any exchange.

(7) Such attorney shall, within the time limited for filing the annual statement by insurance companies transacting the same kind of business, make a report to the commissioner of insurance for each calendar year showing the financial condition of affairs at the office where such contracts are issued, and shall furnish such additional information and reports as may be required; provided, however, that such attorney shall not be required to furnish the names and addresses of any subscribers * * *. The business affairs and assets of such organizations shall be subject to examination by the commissioner of insurance in the same manner as in the case of other insurance carriers, and such exchanges shall also be subject to any anti-discrimination or anti-rebating laws applicable to other fire and casualty insurance carriers, except that any such anti-rebating law shall not be construed to include or apply to savings or dividends paid to subscribers or credited to their account.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.
