

SECTION 1. Subsection (1) of section 111.09 of the statutes is amended to read: (111.09) (1) It shall be unlawful to sell, or offer for sale, any article of food which has been held for a period of forty days or over in cold storage either within or without the state, except as and for "cold storage goods", and without notifying persons purchasing, or intending to purchase the same, that it has been so held. When articles of food which have been held in cold storage for a period of forty days or over are displayed for sale in any store or other place where such articles are sold, a placard, plainly and conspicuously marked "cold storage goods" shall be displayed on the bulk mass of said articles of food, and if articles of food which have been held in cold storage for a period of forty days or more are sold in any store or other place but not exposed to view, a placard setting forth the kind of goods and the fact that they are cold storage shall be conspicuously displayed in the place of sale. It shall be unlawful to sell, offer for sale, represent or advertise as fresh any article of food which has been in cold storage for a period of forty days or over. It shall be unlawful to sell or to offer for sale, to display, advertise, or to represent in any manner whatsoever for the purpose of selling, any eggs other than cold storage that have been held for a period of forty days or over, either within or without the state, without notifying the persons purchasing or intending to purchase the same, that they are held eggs. Provided, however, that this subsection shall not apply to fish in so far that such article of food may be sold without the label "cold storage" but shall be labeled in lieu thereof, "frozen fish".

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved April 20, 1933.

No. 221, S.]

[Published April 21, 1933.

CHAPTER 85.

AN ACT authorizing counties during a limited period to use state highway allotments for certain purposes with approval of the emergency board.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Until June 30, 1935, whenever it appears upon the application of any county to the emergency board that such county does not have sufficient funds from other sources to pay accrued interest on outstanding highway bonds issued under section 67.13 or 67.14, the emergency board may authorize such county to use any portion of the unexpended balance of its allotment under subsections (2) or (3) of section 84.03 to meet accrued interest on such bonds.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved April 20, 1933.

No. 10, A.]

[Published April 21, 1933.

CHAPTER 86.

AN ACT to renumber section 272.29 to be subsection (1) of said section and to create subsection (2) of said section of the statutes, relating to adjournment of sale on execution.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 272.29 is renumbered to be subsection (1) of said section 272.29 of the statutes.

SECTION 2. A new subsection is added to section 272.29 of the statutes to read: (272.29) (2) If at the time appointed for any such sale the sheriff shall deem it for the interest of all persons concerned therein he may adjourn the same from time to time, not exceeding in all thirty days. In case of such adjournment notice thereof shall be given by public declaration at the time and place first fixed for the sale. If the adjournment shall be for more than one day further notice shall be given by posting or publishing the same, or both, as the time and circumstances may admit.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved April 19, 1933.

No. 78, A.]

[Published April 21, 1933.

CHAPTER 87.

AN ACT to create subsection (3) of section 75.01 of the statutes, relating to the redemption from tax sale.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows: