CHAPTER 178.

AN ACT to amend 49.07 (1) of the statutes, relating to commitments to the county home.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subsection (1) of section 49.07 of the statutes is amended to read:

(49.07) (1) Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of any judge of any court of record by a petition signed by the officer, if there be but one, or by any 2 officers charged with the care of the poor in any town, city, village, or county that any person having a legal settlement therein is without sufficient means of support and necessary care and is by reason of sickness, infirmity, decrepitude, old age, drunkenness, or pregnancy likely to become a public charge, either temporarily or permanently, or that such person lives in a state of indigence, squalor, or filth likely to induce disease, or has removed to another town, city, village, or county and has applied for and received temporary relief therein, and that the town, city, village, or county represented by the petitioner or petitioners has reimbursed the municipality affording such relief, or that such person is an inebriate or drug addict, such judge may commit such person to the county home of his county, if there be one therein, * * * otherwise to the county home of some other county for a definite time, not less than 60 days, or for an indefinite time, subject to such further order as he may make; but no person shall be so committed without having an opportunity to be heard in person or by some one in his behalf. Any order or process issued by such judge under this section may be served and such commitment may be made by any officer charged with the care of the poor in the county where the proceedings are had.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

CHAPTER 179.

AN ACT to repeal and recreate 69.32 and 69.33 of the statutes, relating to fees for stillbirth and death certificates.

SECTION 1. Sections 69.32 and 69.33 of the statutes are repealed and recreated to read:

69.32 STILLBIRTHS. Stillborn children shall be registered in accordance with the rules of the state board of health and with the other sections of this chapter pertaining to the filing of certificates. The certificate of stillbirth shall contain such items as the state board of health may determine are necessary and shall agree in the main with the standard form recommended by the United States census bureau.
