CHAPTER 232.

AN ACT to create 16.352 of the statutes, relating to temporary appointments in the classified civil service in counties having a population of 250,000 or more.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 16.352 of the statutes is created to read:

16.352 TEMPORARY APPOINTMENTS. (1) (a) When need exist for the filling of a position in the classified service for a period of not to exceed 6 months duration, a temporary appointment shall be made for such period from the proper eligible list or as provided in subsection (5) of section 16.35. Such temporary appointment may be extended once for not to exceed 6 months by resolution of the county board after receipt by it of a recommendation for such extension from the civil service commission. The acceptance or refusal by an eligible of a temporary appointment shall not affect his standing on the eligible register for permanent employment nor shall the period of service of any temporary appointment be counted as a part of the probationary service required after appointment to a permanent position.

(b) This subsection shall apply to a position created on a temporary basis or to a temporary appointment to a position created on a permanent basis. As to either of such methods of filling a position which has existed for more than one year at the effective date of this subsection, the county board shall within 60 days after the effective date of this subsection provide for filling such position on a permanent basis or abolish the same.

(2) All persons serving in positions in the classified service of the county on a temporary appointment on the effective date of this section who attained such position by appointment after certification as provided by law and who occupied such position on February 1, 1938, shall be deemed to have qualified for certification for permanent appointment and shall be certified in order of seniority for appointment to such position when such position is established on a permanent basis by the county board.
