Upon the death of a secondary beneficiary after he has become entitled to receive monthly payments hereunder, the then present value of his benefit shall be paid in a single sum to his estate. Upon the death of a secondary beneficiary before he has become entitled to receive any payment hereunder, the amount, if any, to which he would have been entitled, shall be paid to the remaining secondary beneficiary, or to the remaining secondary beneficiaries, in equal shares, if there are 2 or more, with the other payments to said beneficiary or beneficiaries; or

SECTION 12. 42.50 (2) (d) of the statutes is created to read:

42.50 (2) (d) To one beneficiary, or divided equally or as the member otherwise specified between 2 or more beneficiaries in instalments certain or in a single sum. In the event that any beneficiary dies after he has become entitled to receive part, but has not received all, of the benefit which would be payable to him under this paragraph, the then present value of his benefit shall be paid to his estate in a single sum.

SECTION 13. 42.50 (3) of the statutes is created to read:

42.50 (3) In any case under this section where the member shall not have designated the method of payment of the death benefit, the designated beneficiary or beneficiaries may elect which of the methods of payment specified in subsection (2) shall be used; and if said beneficiaries cannot agree upon any one of such methods, the state annuity and investment board shall specify which of said methods shall be used.

CHAPTER 405.

AN ACT to amend section 23, chapter 217, laws of 1929, relating to the superior court for Dane county and requiring the clerk and deputy clerks of said court to furnish an official bond.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Chapter 217, laws of 1929, section 23 is amended to read:

(Chapter 217, Laws of 1929), Section 23. The said judge of the superior court shall enter an order in writing appointing a suitable person to act as clerk of said court who shall serve at the will of the judge of said court until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified. The clerk so appointed shall subscribe to the oath of office prescribed in the constitution. Said appointment and oath of office shall be filed with the clerk of the circuit court of the county of Dane and a duplicate copy with the city clerk of the city of Madison. Said clerk of the superior court shall receive as compensation the sum of $1,800 per annum, until otherwise fixed by the Dane county board, but which shall not be less than $1,800 per annum, apportioned and paid monthly, two-thirds out of the treasury of Dane county and one-third out of the treasury of the city of Madison, until otherwise apportioned by the county of Dane and the city of Madison jointly, the same to be in full for all services rendered by said clerk as clerk of the said superior court. When said judge of the superior court is designated as judge of the juvenile court of said county, the clerk of the superior court shall also be the clerk of the juvenile court and shall receive the sum of $720 per annum additional compensation for his services as such clerk of the juvenile court. The clerk of said superior court may with the approval of the judge of said superior court appoint one or more suitable persons to act as deputy clerk or deputy clerks of said court as the Dane county board may provide. The deputy clerk or deputy clerks of said court shall receive such compensation as the Dane county board shall fix, but which compensation shall not be less than $900 per annum each, apportioned and paid monthly, two-thirds out of the treasury of Dane county and one-third out of the treasury of the city of Madison, until otherwise apportioned by the county of Dane and the city of Madison jointly. The clerk and each of the deputy clerks of said court shall execute and file an official bond in an amount to be determined by the county board.
