

No. 428, S.]

[Published July 10, 1943.]

CHAPTER 492.

AN ACT to create 103.805 of the statutes, authorizing the industrial commission to fix and collect certain permit fees.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

103.805 of the statutes is created to read:

103.805 PERMIT FEES; REPORTS. The commission may fix and collect a fee not exceeding 25 cents for the issuance of each permit under the provisions of this chapter. The commission may authorize the retention of such fee by the person designated to issue permits as compensation for his services incident thereto, provided that such person is not on the pay roll of the industrial commission and provided, further, that such permit officer shall report all fees collected at such times and in such manner and form as the commission may prescribe.

Approved July 9, 1943.

No. 430, S.]

[Published July 10, 1943.]

CHAPTER 493.

AN ACT to repeal and recreate 111.13 of the statutes, relating to an advisory committee to the Wisconsin employment relations board.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

111.13 of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

111.13 ADVISORY COMMITTEE. The board shall appoint an advisory committee consisting of one member of the board who shall represent the general public and who shall act as chairman, and an equal number of representatives of employes and employers. In selecting the representatives of employes, the board shall give representation to organizations representing labor unions both affiliated and nonaffiliated; and in selecting representatives of employers it shall give representation to employers in agriculture, industrial and commercial pursuits. The board may refer to such committee for its study and advice any matter