CHAPTER 632.

AN ACT to create 20.34 (1b); and to amend 41.26 of the statutes, relating to nonresident tuition at Stout institute, and making an appropriation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. 20.34 (1b) of the statutes is created to read:

20.34 (1b) In addition to other appropriations, on July 1, 1949 and annually beginning July 1, 1950, a sum equivalent to the nonveteran nonresident tuition charges, to be used for personal services.

SECTION 2. 41.26 of the statutes is amended to read:

41.26 Any student attending Stout institute who shall not have been a resident of the state for one year next preceding his first admission thereto shall pay a tuition fee of * * * not to exceed $200 for the school year, and a proportionate amount therefor for attendance at the summer session. The board of trustees of the Stout institute shall charge tuition at the rate of * * * not to exceed $200 per school year for any student who shall not have been a bona fide resident of Wisconsin for one year next preceding his first admission to Stout institute, and shall charge a proportionate amount thereof for any such student attending the summer session division. Such nonresident students shall in addition to the tuition prescribed herein pay the usual incidental fees charged resident students. The board of trustees of Stout institute may remit either in whole or in part tuition, but not incidental fees, to a number of needy and worthy nonresident students, not exceeding 8 per cent of the number of nonresident students registered in the preceding year, upon the basis of merit, to be shown by suitable tests, examinations or scholastic records and continued high standards of scholastic attainment.

Approved August 8, 1949.
