CHAPTER 371

AN ACT to amend 176.32 (1) of the statutes, relating to exempting ski chalets from the prohibition against the presence of persons under 21, if intoxicating liquor is sold.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

176.32 (1) of the statutes is amended to read:

176.32 (1) Every keeper of any place, of any nature or character whatsoever, for the sale of any intoxicating liquor, who * * * either directly or indirectly * * * suffers or permits any person of either sex under the age of 21 years, unaccompanied by his or her parent, guardian or spouse, of whom one shall be 21 years of age, or * * * suffers or permits any person to whom the sale of any such liquors has been forbidden in the manner provided by law, who is not a resident, employe, or a bona fide lodger or boarder on the premises of such licensed person, to enter or be on such licensed premises for any purpose, excepting the transaction of bona fide business other than amusement or the purchase, receiving or consumption of edibles or beverages, shall, for every such offense, be fined not exceeding $250 or imprisoned not exceeding 60 days; and any such person so remaining as aforesaid, who is not a resident, employe, or a bona fide lodger or boarder on the premises, or who is not accompanied by his or her parent, guardian or spouse, of whom one shall be 21 years of age, shall be fined not more than $20 or imprisoned not exceeding 30 days. This section shall not apply to hotels, drug stores, grocery stores, bowling alleys, ski chalets, cars operated on any railroad, regularly established athletic fields or stadiums nor to premises operated under both a "Class B" license and a restaurant permit where the principal business conducted therein is that of a restaurant. It shall be presumed, however, where such premises are so operated under both a "Class B" license and a restaurant permit, that the principal business conducted therein is that of the sale of intoxicating liquor, until such presumption is rebutted by competent evidence.

Approved September 27, 1963.
