ERC 13.02 Policy. To promote the prompt and peaceful settlement of labor disputes affecting terms and conditions of municipal sector employment in Wisconsin, the commission offers various mediation services involving designation of mediators to assist the parties in reaching a voluntary settlement. In order to maintain and enhance the effectiveness of the mediation function, the commission has established rules and procedures designed to maintain confidentiality of the mediation process.

ERC 13.03 Request for mediation services. (1) WHO MAY FILE. A request for mediation services may be filed by a municipal employer or by the exclusive collective bargaining representative of a bargaining unit of municipal employees or by the certified or recognized negotiation representative of a unit of firefighter or law enforcement supervisors, or by anyone authorized to act on their behalf.

(2) FORM; FILING; FILING FEE; SERVICE. A request that the commission provide the services of a mediator shall be in writing on a form provided by the commission, or a facsimile of the commission's form. The request is not filed until it and the filing fee established by s. ERC 10.08 (3) have been received by the commission at its Madison office during normal business hours specified in s. ERC 10.06 (1). If any request for mediator services concerns issues arising as a result of more than one unrelated event or occurrence, each separate event or occurrence shall be treated as a separate request for which a separate filing fee shall be assessed. The request shall be transmitted to the commission as set forth in s. ERC 10.06 (1). If the request is filed in paper form, a total of 1 copy of the request shall be included. The fee may be transmitted to the commission by physical delivery or mail. Unless the request is submitted jointly, the party filing the request shall, at the same time, serve a copy of the request on the other party as set forth in s. ERC 10.07.

(3) CONTENTS. A request for mediation services shall include all of the following:

(a) The name and address of the municipal employer involved, and the name, address and phone number of its principal representative. Fax numbers and e-mail addresses shall be included, if available.

(b) The name and address of the exclusive representative involved, and the name, address and phone number of its principal representative. Fax numbers and e-mail addresses shall be included, if available.

(c) A statement whether the general nature of the dispute is a collective bargaining agreement negotiation dispute, a grievance dispute, or another type of labor dispute.

(d) A statement identifying the particular dispute involved by providing the following information regarding the following types of disputes:

ERC 13.04 Commission action on request for mediation services. (1) ACQUIESCENCE; REFUND OF FILING FEE. If the request to initiate mediation is filed by only one party, the commission shall immediately contact the other party to the dispute to inquire as to its acquiescence to mediation. If that party opposes proceeding to mediation, the commission shall so advise the initiating party, shall return the filing fee, and shall not act further on the request. The filing fee is refundable only in the event of the other party's non-acquiescence to mediation; neither the requesting party's withdrawal of the request for mediation nor the parties' settlement of the underlying dispute is a basis on which the filing fee shall be refunded.

(2) DESIGNATION OF MEDIATOR. If mediation has been jointly initiated or acquiesced in, the commission shall designate the mediator. Parties' joint requests for designation of particular mediators may be considered by the commission but shall not be binding on the commission.

(3) MEDIATOR IMPARTIALITY. The commission shall designate only competent, impartial and disinterested persons to act as mediators.

All files, records, reports, documents, or other papers received or prepared by the mediator in that person's confidential capacity shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed to any unauthorized person without the prior consent of the commission. The mediator shall not produce any confidential records of, or testify about any mediation conducted by the mediator, before any court, board (including the Wisconsin Employment Relations Commission), investigative body, arbitrator or fact finder without the written consent of the commission.
