OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER OF SAVINGS AND LOAN 61

(e) The association's duly appointed appraisal committee is qualified to appraise any real estate security for loans except such real estate security as described in section 215.21 (9) (a), Wis. Stats.

6. The annual supervisory examination report discloses high ratios of mortgage loan delinquencies, loan concentration secured by real estate situated in declining areas, loan concentration to speculative builders, granting of new loans or extending existing mortgage loans to speculative builders when such speculative builder is indebted to the association on completed structures which have remained unsold for an undue period of time, appraisals made by the association's appraisal committee substantially exceed sales prices, the disbursement of funds on construction, loans in advance of the actual progress of construction, or any other adverse factors or trends which would tend to impair the value of the assets of the association.

(a) Upon the approval of a mortgage loan by the association and upon the acceptance of the loan commitment by the applicant, the association shall cause a check of the public records to be made by an abstractor or other competent person to determine status of title, incumbrances, judgments, liens and taxes for the purpose of obtaining preliminary information for the preparation of the loan file. Such preliminary file of reports shall be in writing. The preliminary opinion of title shall be made in writing by an attorney at law.

(b) If the association is refinancing an existing mortgage and has a final opinion of title on such loan, then said final opinion of title may be accepted in lieu of a preliminary opinion of title provided that the extension of the abstract, prior to the refinancing shows that there are no unsatisfied, intervening mortgages, liens or judgments.

(c) At the time of loan closing, after all necessary conveyances, mortgages, mortgage notes, satisfactions and releases have been executed, the association, upon information and belief contained in its preliminary title search, may disburse loan proceeds.

(d) Immediately after loan closing, all deeds, mortgages, satisfactions and releases shall be recorded; thereafter the abstract, describing the mortgaged premises, shall be extended and the association's attorney or any attorney approved by the association shall examine such abstracts and render a final opinion of title in writing advising the association that each borrower has good title, and that the association's mortgages are first liens thereon.

(2) TITLE GUARANTY POLICIES: WHEN ACCEPTABLE. (a) Upon approval of a mortgage loan by the association and upon the acceptance of the loan commitment by the applicant, the association, in lieu of opinions of title from abstracts, shall obtain a preliminary report, letter, binder or commitment to insure from the title guaranty insurance companies showing status of title, incumbrances, judgments, liens and taxes for the purpose of obtaining preliminary information for the closing of the loan.

(b) At the time of loan closing, after all necessary conveyances, mortgages, mortgage notes, satisfactions and releases have been executed, the association, upon information and belief contained in the preliminary reports, letters, binders or commitments to insure, may disburse loan proceeds.

(c) Immediately after loan closing, all deeds, satisfactions, mortgages and releases shall be recorded, and title policies insuring first liens to the association shall be obtained within 1 year on all loans made for purposes of construction, and within 2 months on mortgage loans made for purposes other than construction. Every savings and loan association shall have the discretionary right to determine whether its duly appointed attorney shall render an opinion of title on the real estate on which a title policy of insurance has been accepted by the association.

(3) TITLE SEARCH FOR INTERVENING LIENS ON ADDITIONAL ADVANCES.

(a) Prior to granting an additional advance on a mortgage loan, the association shall obtain a letter or affidavit from the attorney, abstractor or title company that the records have been checked to determine the existence of any intervening liens.

(b) If such title search reveals the existence of intervening liens, no additional advance shall be made unless subordination agreements are obtained from the holders of said liens, or the liens satisfied.

(2) The board of directors shall take formal action upon each extension and renewal request. If the board approved such application, the minutes shall state the time granted for the renewal or extension and the rate of interest to be paid.

(3) After the application for extension or renewal has been approved by the board, an "Extension of Mortgage" form shall be executed by the borrower and the association in such form as shall enable it to be recorded in the office of the register of deeds.
