

Chapter Eth 4*PROCEDURE*Eth 4.01 Requests for written advice

Eth 4.01 Requests for written advice. In instances where delay is of substantial inconvenience or detriment to a party requesting the board's written advice regarding the propriety of any matter to which he is or may become a party, the board's executive director may, with the advice and consent of the chairman, or if the chairman is unavailable with the advice and consent of the vice chairman, or if the vice chairman is unavailable, with the advice and consent of the secretary or other member of the board, advise the state public official. Written advice prepared by the executive director pursuant to this rule shall have the full force and effect of written advice given by the board, except that at its next meeting, the board may rescind or modify that written advice.
