G-W 4.01 Daily records
G-W 4.02 Duty to receive

G-W 4.03 Inspection
G-W 4.04 Issuance of receipts

G-W 4.01 Daily records. The operator of each registered public warehouse shall furnish daily to the warehouse registrar or assistant warehouse registrar a correct statement of the amount of each kind and grade of grain or other commodity received in store in such warehouse on the previous day, also the amount of each kind and grade of grain or other commodity delivered or shipped at such warehouse during the previous day, and what registered warehouse receipts and duplicate receipts have been cancelled upon which the grain or other commodity has been delivered on such days giving the number of each receipt and the amount, kind and grade of grain or other commodity received and shipped upon each; also how much grain or other commodity, if any, is delivered or shipped and the kind and grade of it, for which warehouse receipts have not been issued, and when and how such unreceipted grain or other commodity was received, the aggregate of such reported cancellation and delivery of unreceipted grain or other commodity corresponding in amount, kind, and grade with the amount so reported, delivered or shipped, and in addition any further information that may be necessary to enable the said warehouse registrar or assistant warehouse registrar to keep a full and complete record of all receipts issued and cancelled and all grain received and delivered.

G-W 4.02 Duty to receive. It is the duty of each operator of a registered public warehouse to receive for storage and shipment all grain or other commodity in suitable condition for storage, tendered in the usual course of business, without discrimination of any kind.

G-W 4.03 Inspection. All grain or other commodities received into or shipped from registered public warehouses must be inspected by a duly authorized state or federal inspector and weighed by a duly authorized state weigher.

G-W 4.04 Issuance of receipts. Warehouse receipts in the form prescribed by law must be issued upon the application of the owner or consignee for all grain or other commodities received. No receipts shall be issued for a greater quantity of grain or other commodity than is actually received.
