REB 15.01 Authority, intent and general principles. (1) The rules in this chapter are adopted pursuant to ss. 15.08, 227.014 and ch. 452, Stats.

(2) The intent of the real estate examining board in adopting the rules in this chapter is to establish minimum standards of conduct for real estate licensees and to define that conduct which may result in board action to limit, suspend or revoke the license of a real estate broker, salesperson or cemetery salesperson, or to reprimand a real estate broker, salesperson or cemetery salesperson.

(3) If a licensee violates rules in this chapter, the licensee has demonstrated untrustworthiness or incompetency to act as a broker, salesperson or cemetery salesperson in such manner as to safeguard the interests of the public as those terms are used in s. 452.10 (2) (i), Stats. However, the terms "untrustworthiness" and "incompetency" are not limited in their meaning to violations of these rules.

(4) If a licensee violates the rules set forth in s. REB 15.075 of this chapter, the licensee has engaged in improper, fraudulent or dishonest dealing as those terms are used in s. 452.10 (2) (k), Stats. However, the terms "improper, fraudulent or dishonest dealing" are not limited in their meaning to violations of s. REB 15.075.

(5) The rules in this chapter are based upon the following general principles:

(a) Licensees have the responsibility to represent the interests of the principal as an agent. However, the responsibility owed the principal does not exempt the licensee from the obligation to treat fairly all parties to a transaction.

(b) Licensees must act to protect the public against fraud, misrepresentation and unethical practices.

REB 15

(c) Licensees must be knowledgeable regarding laws, public policies and current market conditions on real estate matters and assist, guide and advise the buying or selling public based upon these factors.

(d) Licensees must provide competent service in those areas in which the licensee practices.
