ance shall refer exclusively to insurance coverage, and shall be separate and apart from the loan, sale, or other credit statement of account, instrument, or agreement unless the information is prominently set forth therein. Said application for or notice of proposed insurance shall state that, upon acceptance by the insurer, the insurance shall become effective as of the date the indebtedness is incurred.

(7) APPROVAL OF FORMS AND RATES. (a) All forms of policies, riders, endorsements, certificates, applications, notices of proposed insurance, or other instruments which will be issued or delivered in Wisconsin as a part of a credit accident and health insurance contract shall be submitted to the commissioner of insurance for approval under the terms of this rule.

(b) No policy, rider, endorsement, certificate, application, notice of proposed insurance, or other form pertaining to a credit accident and health insurance contract shall be issued or delivered in Wisconsin on or after the effective date of this rule unless such forms are filed with the commissioner of insurance and approved by him. No credit accident and health insurance shall be effected on a debtor under an existing group policy, commencing with the policy anniversary date on or after the effective date of this regulation, unless a certificate of group insurance or a notice of proposed group insurance, as required herein, is delivered to the debtor on a form filed with the commissioner of insurance and approved by him.

(c) In considering a form of policy, rider, or endorsement for approval, the commissioner of insurance will also consider information submitted in the rate schedule which shall accompany such form. The rate schedule shall also be subject to approval by the commissioner of insurance and shall contain or be accompanied by the following information:

1. The form number or identification symbol of each policy, rider, or endorsement to which the rates apply.
2. A schedule of rates including variations, if any, based on age, sex, occupation, or other classification.
3. An indication of the anticipated benefits payable under the policy, including loss ratio.
4. If the rate filing is a revision of a prior filing, the new filing shall be accompanied by a statement of the experience on the form and the anticipated loss ratio under the revised rate filing.

(d) If an identifiable charge is made to the debtor under a policy of credit accident and health insurance, such identifiable charge shall not exceed the premium set forth in the rate schedule filed with the commissioner of insurance.

(e) On or before February 16, 1959, each insurer authorized to do business in Wisconsin shall furnish the commissioner of insurance a list of all policies, riders, endorsements, certificates, applications, notices of proposed insurance, or any other instruments which it intends to issue to insure residents of Wisconsin for credit accident and health insurance.

(8) ACCOUNTING. Insurers shall maintain records regarding premiums, losses, and other benefits and expenses separately for credit accident and health insurance and for credit life insurance provided by a policy form so that such experience may be filed with the commissioner of insurance at such times and in such manner as may be
