

a. Disclosure of the specific purposes for use of the funds raised from the sale of the debt securities;

b. A statement that the decision of an offeree whether or not to purchase or to agree to any renewal will not have any effect upon that offeree's advancement opportunities, raises or other benefits, nor will impact on the offeree's continued employment or job duties;

c. A representation that the issuer is not contemplating, and is not the subject of, any proposed merger, sale of assets or control of the issuer, receivership or bankruptcy, that it does not have current financial obligations that it is unable to meet, and that it has not been refused credit by any lending institution for the purposes for which the proceeds from sale or renewal of the debt securities will be used; and

d. Financial statements for the issuer's 3 previous fiscal years, or the duration of the issuer's existence, whichever is less, that shall be either audited or, if unaudited, accompanied by the issuer's federal income tax return with supporting schedules for the corresponding years;

6. Offerees shall be provided with a 5-day period following their receipt of any offering materials, information or subscription agreement for purchase of the issuer's securities, before the subscription agreement can be returned to or accepted by the issuer; and

7. The issuer shall provide that upon the death or involuntary termination of employment of the holder, the debt securities will be redeemed by the issuer within 60 days of receipt by the issuer of a written request for repurchase from the holder or the holder's legal representative. The redemption price shall include principal plus accrued interest to the date of redemption.

(j) Any offer or sale of securities that qualifies for use of a transactional registration exemption under s. SEC 2.025 or 2.027.

(k) Offers or sales of a discretionary or managed trading account involving discretion or management provided by a broker-dealer licensed in this state or by an investment adviser licensed in this state.

(l) Any offer, but not a sale, of a security through a presentation to potential investors at an organized venture capital fair or other investment forum designated in writing by the commissioner. In order to be designated as a venture capital fair or investment forum for purposes of this exemption, a written application for designation shall be submitted to the commissioner either by a sponsor of the fair or forum or by any interested person if accompanied by the written affirmation of a sponsor, setting forth the dates, places and times the activity will take place, the names and addresses of all sponsors of the activity, and the criteria to be met for a firm or person to participate in the fair or forum. Within 10 days from the receipt of the application or 10 days from the date of receipt of any amendment or supplemental information to the application required by the commissioner, the commissioner shall either designate the applicant a venture capital fair or investment forum or notify the applicant in writing why such a designation will not be made. For purposes of this paragraph, the terms "venture capital fair" or "investment forum" include, but are not limited to, gatherings open to public attendance that are sponsored by one or more not-for-profit entities at which persons representing existing or proposed businesses may make presentations regarding their business plans and products, or their financing or investment capital needs or proposals.

(m) 1. Any offer, sale or option to purchase equity securities issued by a new Wisconsin business corporation if that offer or sale is made by, or the option is offered by, the issuing corporation to its employees, officers or directors. In this subsection, "new Wisconsin business corporation" means a business incorporated under ch. 180, Stats., with its principal office in this state which, on the date of the offer, sale or issuance of the option, has been operating 5 years or less, has no more than 50 employees and has annual gross receipts of $5,000,000 or less.

2. Prior to any offering made in this state under this paragraph, the corporation shall provide the commissioner with at least 20 days' advance written notice of the offering. The notice shall include a copy of a written disclosure document to be provided to each offeree setting forth, without limitation as to other types of information that can be provided, the amount of funds being raised in the offering; how the proceeds will be expended; basic information about the corporation's business activities and historical operations to date; the identity of its officers, directors and controlling persons; the current ownership levels of the corporation's securities, together with the price per share paid by persons for those shares; and financial statements for the corporation.

SEC 2.025 Non-seasoned issuer registration exemption by filing. Except as provided in sub. (6) a transactional registration exemption is available under s. 551.23 (18), Stats., for any offer or sale of common stock that meets the conditions set forth in subs. (1) to (5) unless a condition or conditions is waived by the commissioner upon a showing of good cause.

(1) FEDERAL REGISTRATION STATEMENT. A registration statement for the securities shall have been filed under the securities act of 1933 and, prior to any sale in this state, the registration statement shall have been declared effective by the U.S. securities and exchange commission.

(2) UNDERWRITING. The offering shall be made pursuant to a firm commitment underwriting by one or more qualifying managing underwriters. As used in this subsection, "qualifying managing underwriter" means a managing or co-managing underwriter of the offering, not affiliated with the issuer, or the sponsor or controlling person of the issuer, by means of direct or indirect common control, who either meets each of the conditions in par. (a) 1 to 5 or receives a designation by letter from the commissioner under par. (b).
