RACE 19.01 Purpose. This chapter sets forth the factors and schedule of penalties to be utilized by the stewards and the board in assessing a penalty for a violation of ch. 562, Stats., or the board's rules.

History: Cr. Register, July, 1990, No. 415, eff. 8-1-90.

RACE 19.02 Scope. This chapter shall apply to all violations of ch. 562, Stats., or the board's regulations for which either a listing of factors to be considered or a specification of penalties is not contained elsewhere in ch. 562. Stats.. or the board's rules.

History: Cr. Register, July, 1990, No. 415, eff. 8-1-90.

RACE 19.03 Factors in aggravation and mitigation. In assessing a penalty the following factors shall be considered:

- (1) The age and experience of the violator;
- (2) The number of previous rule violations for the same or related offense;
- (3) The total number of racing rule or statute violations assessed against the violator;
 - (4) Actions taken by the violator to avoid the violations;
 - (5) The extent of the violator's direct involvement in the violation;
 - (6) The effect of the violation on innocent third parties:
 - (7) The extent the violator would profit from the misconduct;
- (8) The effect on revenue to units of government, or other state interests including, but not limited to, the public's perception of the integrity of racing and wagering thereon;
 - (9) Whether the violator acted negligently, willfully or recklessly; and
 - (10) Any other factor which is material and relevant to the case.

History: Cr. Register, July, 1990, No. 415, eff. 8-1-90.

RACE 19.04 Range of penalties. (1) The following classes of violations shall subject the violator to the penalties set forth below:

- (a) Any violation which affects, or could reasonably be expected to affect, the outcome of a race shall be subject to a maximum forfeiture of $10,000, lifetime suspension or revocation of licensure or any combination;
- (b) Any violation which affects, or could reasonably be expected to affect, the outcome of a race shall be subject to a maximum forfeiture of
