(4) REQUIRE REAPPRAISALS. Require reappraisals of property securing an association's loan. Such appraisals shall be conducted at the association's expense.

(5) REQUIRE ACTION WITH REGARD TO UNDERSECURED REAL ESTATE LOANS. (a) If the division determines that the current market value of the real estate collateral and any other collateral that is acceptable security for a mortgage loan is less than the outstanding balance of the loan, require the association to:

1. Obtain additional collateral acceptable to the division;

2. Reduce the book value of the loan to the current market value of the acceptable collateral; or

3. Establish a valuation reserve reflecting the difference between the outstanding balance of the mortgage loan and the current market value of the acceptable collateral.

If there is no such board, or if after using it the complainant or the respondent seeks further aid from the division, the division shall investigate the complaint.

(b) Upon receiving a written complaint, the division shall determine whether additional information is needed and if so, request it. The division may send a copy of the complaint to the chief executive officer of the association complained about and request additional facts and the association's reply.

(c) If after the investigation under pars. (a) and (b), the division finds probable cause to believe that there has been a violation of an administrative rule or of any provision of ch. 215, Stats., the division shall immediately endeavor to correct the probable violation by conference, conciliation, persuasion or order. If the division determines that the association has corrected the alleged violation, it shall dismiss the complaint and so notify the parties. However, if the division determines that efforts at resolution have been unsuccessful, it may hold a hearing on the complaint. After the hearing, the division shall issue written findings of fact and conclusions of law, and may make such orders as it deems just, reasonable and appropriate.

(d) If after investigation the division finds no probable cause or refers the complaint for action by another person or agency for action, it shall so notify the complainant and the association.
