(2) PRELIMINARY DETERMINATION DISMISSING COMPLAINT. The division shall issue a preliminary determination dismissing any complaint or any portion of a complaint that fails to meet the requirements of sub. DWD 224.07 Investigations. (1) CONDUCT OF INVESTIGATION. Except as provided in sub. (3), the division shall investigate all complaints that satisfy the review under s. DWD 224.06. In conducting investigations under this chapter, the division may seek the cooperation of all persons to provide requested materials to the division; to obtain access to premises, records, documents, individuals, and other possible sources of information; to examine, record, and copy necessary materials; and to take statements of persons reasonably necessary for the furtherance of the investigation. In scheduling interviews with state employees, the division may consider the programmatic needs of the appointing authority. The division may subpoena persons or documents for the purpose of the investigation. Subpoenas may be enforced pursuant to s. 885.11, Stats.

(2) ADVISING COMPLAINANT TO AMEND COMPLAINT. If, during an investigation, it appears that the respondent has engaged in retaliatory action against the complainant that is not alleged in the complaint, the division may advise the complainant that the complaint should be amended.

(3) DISMISSAL OF COMPLAINT PRIOR TO COMPLETION OF INVESTIGATION. (a) The division may dismiss a complaint prior to completion of an investigation under the following circumstances:

- 1. The complainant has failed to respond to correspondence from the division concerning the complaint within 20 days after the correspondence was sent by certified mail to the last-known address of the person filing the complaint.
- 2. The complainant signed a valid waiver and release of claims arising out of the complainant's employment with the respondent which would preclude the division from finding that the respondent has violated subch. III of ch. 230, Stats.
- 3. The allegations in the complaint have been previously dismissed by the division.

(b) A complainant may appeal from an order dismissing a complaint under this subsection by filing a written appeal with the division. The appeal shall be filed within 20 days of the date of the order and shall state specifically the grounds upon which it is based. If a timely appeal is filed, the division shall serve a copy of the appeal upon all other parties. The matter shall be referred to the hearing section of the division for review by an administrative law judge. The administrative law judge shall issue a decision that shall either affirm, reverse, modify, or set aside the dismissal of the complaint. The decision of the administrative law judge shall be served upon the parties. If the decision reverses or sets aside the dismissal, the complaint shall be remanded for further investigation. History: CR 03-092: cr. Register March 2004 No. 579, eff. 4-1-04.

DWD 224.08 Initial determination. (1) GENERAL. At the conclusion of the investigation, the division shall issue a written initial determination that shall state whether or not there is probable cause to believe that retaliatory action occurred as alleged in the complaint. This initial determination shall set forth the facts upon which its conclusion is based and shall be served upon the parties.

(2) INITIAL DETERMINATION OF PROBABLE CAUSE. If the division initially determines that there is probable cause to believe that any retaliatory action occurred as alleged in the complaint, it shall certify the case to hearing. A hearing on the merits shall thereafter be noticed and conducted in accordance with the provisions of ss. DWD 224.12 to 224.21.

(3) INITIAL DETERMINATION OF NO PROBABLE CAUSE. If the division initially determines that there is no probable cause to believe that retaliatory action occurred as alleged in the complaint, it may dismiss those allegations. The division shall, by a notice to be incorporated in the initial determination, notify the parties and their attorneys of record of the complainant's right to appeal as provided in s. DWD 224.09.

(1) WHEN FILED. Within 30 days after the date of an initial determination finding that there is no probable cause, a complainant may file a written request for a hearing on the issue of probable cause. The request for hearing shall state specifically the grounds upon which the appeal is based. The division shall notify the respondent that an appeal has been filed within 10 days of receiving the appeal.

(2) DISMISSAL FINAL IF NO APPEAL FILED. If no timely written request for a hearing is filed, the initial determination's order of dismissal shall be the final determination of the division.

(3) CERTIFICATION TO HEARING ON ISSUE OF PROBABLE CAUSE; RIGHT TO STIPULATE THAT CASE BE DECIDED ON MERITS. If a timely appeal is filed, the division shall issue a notice certifying the matter to hearing. A hearing on the issue of probable cause shall be noticed and conducted in accordance with the provisions of ss. DWD 224.12 to 224.21, except that the parties may stipulate prior to the hearing that the administrative law judge may decide the case on the merits. If a hearing on the issue of probable cause is requested in a case in which the initial determination also found probable cause with respect to one or more issues the division may, with the consent of the parties, consolidate the hearing on probable cause and the hearing on the merits.

In determining whether to dismiss the complaint, the administrative law judge may consider documents and affidavits presented by any party and may hold a hearing to allow the parties to establish facts that may have a bearing on whether the complaint should be dismissed. If the administrative law judge issues an order dismissing the complaint under this section, a certified copy of the order and a notice of appeal rights shall be sent by first class mail to the last known address of each party and to their attorneys of record.

History: CR 03-092: cr. Register March 2004 No. 579, eff. 4-1-04.

The notice of hearing shall fully identify the parties and the case number. It shall specify a time and date for hearing not less than 30 days after the date of mailing of the notice of hearing. (2) CONTENT OF ANSWER. The answer shall contain the address of the respondent and the name and address of the respondent's legal counsel or other representative. It shall also contain a specific admission, denial, or explanation of each allegation of the complaint. If the respondent is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of an allegation, the respondent shall so state and this shall have the effect of a denial. Admissions or denials may be to all or part of an allegation, but shall fairly meet the substance of the allegation. Any affirmative defense relied upon, including the statute of limitations, shall be raised in the answer unless it has previously been raised by a motion in writing. Failure to raise an affirmative defense in the answer may, in the absence of good cause, be held to constitute a waiver of such a defense.
