Game 16.01 Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to establish rules which identify prohibited activities of employees of licensees.

History: Cr. Register, March, 1990, No. 411, eff. 4-1-90.

Game 16.02 Definitions. (1) “Touting” means the act of soliciting anything of value in exchange for information regarding the outcome of a race conducted at a pari-mutuel race meeting under the jurisdiction of the division.

(2) “Bookmaking” means the act of accepting a wager from a patron of a pari-mutuel race meeting with the intent to withhold the wager from the pari-mutuel pool.

(3) “Theft” means the act of knowingly exerting control over state revenue or the revenue of a racing association or, by deception, obtaining control over patron dollars.

(4) “Wagering” means the act of placing a wager or accepting a payout on a wager or both.

History: Cr. Register, March, 1990, No. 411, eff. 4-1-90; CR 03-070: cr. (4) Register November 2003 No. 575, eff. 12-1-03.

Game 16.03 Wagering. (1) No employee of any person licensed pursuant to s. 562.05 (1) (a), (b), (c), Stats., shall place any wagers, or cause any wager to be placed, directly or indirectly, on any race during the time he or she is working. Any employee shall be deemed to be working from the start of their shift until the end of the shift and may not wager during breaks, lunch, or any other time before they are discharged from their duties that day. No employee may wager while wearing any clothing or other identification that indicates they are an employee of a licensee.

(2) No person licensed pursuant to s. 562.05 (1) (a), (b), or (c), Stats., as a racing official may place any wager, directly or indirectly, at any track under the jurisdiction of the division.

(3) An occupational licensee having immediate care and custody of more than one animal entered in a particular race shall not wager on that race.

(4) An occupational licensee may wager on a race in which no animal in the licensee’s immediate care is entered in that race.

(5) An occupational licensee having immediate care and custody of one animal entered in a particular race may cash a winning pari-mutuel ticket for a race only if the animal in the licensee’s care and custody is one of the greyhounds comprising the official order of finish for the pool in which the licensee is cashing the pari-mutuel ticket.
