1. Page 3, line 2: after that line insert:

“SECTION 4. Nonstatutory provisions.

(1) 1995–97 BIENNIAL BUDGET AMENDMENT. Within 15 days after the effective date of this subsection, the department of health and social services shall submit to the legislature, in the manner provided under section 13.172 (2) of the statutes, a proposed amendment to the 1995–97 biennial budget bill. The proposed amendment shall provide for block grants from the state to the counties to be used for providing emergency and nonemergency medical care to the population currently eligible under the general relief program administered under section 49.02 of the statutes and for providing cash benefits to the members of that population who are disabled, as defined in section 46.985 (1) (d) of the statutes. The proposed amendment shall provide for the system of block grants in lieu of the current system of partial reimbursement for eligible costs under the general relief program.”.
