3 “SECTION 2m. 767.32 (2) of the statutes is amended to read:

4 767.32 (2) Except as provided in sub. (2m) or (2r) or s. 767.327 (3) (d), if the court 5 revises a judgment or order with respect to child support payments, it shall do so by 6 using the percentage standard established by the department of health and social 7 services under s. 46.25 (9).”.

8 2. Page 6, line 2: after that line insert:

9 “SECTION 16m. 767.327 (3) (d) of the statutes is created to read:

10 767.327 (3) (d) If the court’s determination under this subsection will result in 11 a substantial change in travel expenses for a parent in exercising his or her right to 12 periods of physical placement with the child, and if the court determines that the 13 amount of child support payable under a judgment or order is unfair to either parent 14 as a result of the change in travel expenses, the court may revise the judgment or 15 order with respect to the amount of child support to account for the change in travel 16 expenses. If the court revises the judgment or order with respect to the amount of 1 child support, the court shall state in writing or on the record the amount by which 2 the travel expenses will change, the reasons for the change in expenses, the reasons

3 supporting the court's finding that the change in travel expenses is substantial 4 enough to render the amount of child support payable under the judgment or order 5 unfair to a parent and the amount by which the child support amount is changed.”.
