4           “SECTION 11b. 11.001 (1m) of the statutes is created to read:

5           11.001 (1m) The legislature finds and declares that the function of judges and 6 justices, who must independently apply the law, is fundamentally distinct from that 7 of elective legislative and executive branch officials who take positions on issues that
8 are influenced by, and represent the will of, their constituencies. The legislature 9 therefore finds that because it is improper for a mass communication to seek to 10 persuade a judge or justice to take a position on an issue, any such communication
11 should be deemed to have been made for a political purpose.

12           SECTION 11ba. 11.01 (12v) of the statutes is created to read:

1           11.01 (12v) “Mass communication” means a message that is disseminated by
2 means of one or more communications media, a mass electronic communication, a
3 mass distribution, or a mass telephoning, but not including a bona fide poll
4 conducted for the purpose of objectively identifying or collecting data concerning the 5 attitudes or preferences of electors.

6           SECTION 11bc. 11.01 (12w) of the statutes is created to read:

11 more pieces of substantially identical material by means of electronic mail or 12 facsimile transmission.

15 conveying a substantially identical message.

20 includes a reference to a candidate whose name is certified under s. 7.08 (2) (a) or 8.50
21 (1) (d) to appear on the ballot at that election, a reference to an office to be filled at 22 that election, or a reference to a political party under whose name the names of one
23 or more candidates appear on the ballot at that election.

4 fitness for office.

5           SECTION 11bh. 11.05 (3) (s) of the statutes is created to read:

6           11.05 (3) (s) In the case of a registrant that has made a mass communication
7 identified in s. 11.01 (16) (a) 3. or 4., a report containing the information specified in
