1 consideration, the time of commencement and expiration of the lease, and a 2 reasonably definite description of the premises, or unless a writing, including by 3 means of electronic mail or facsimile transmission, signed by the landlord and the 4 tenant sets forth the amount of rent or other consideration, the duration of the lease, 5 and a reasonably definite description of the premises and the commencement date 6 is established by entry of the tenant into possession under the writing. Sections 7 704.05 and 704.07 govern as to matters within the scope of such sections and not 8 provided for in such written lease or contract. 9 SECTION 5. 704.05 (1) of the statutes is amended to read: 10 704.05 (1) WHEN SECTION APPLICABLE. So far as applicable, this section governs 11 the rights and duties of the landlord and tenant in the absence of any inconsistent 12provision in writing signed by both the landlord and the tenant. This Except as 13 otherwise provided in this section, this section applies to any tenancy. 14SECTION 6. 704.05 (5) (title) of the statutes is amended to read: 704.05 (5) (title) STORAGE OR DISPOSITION DISPOSITION OF PERSONALTY LEFT BY 1516 TENANT. 17SECTION 7. 704.05 (5) (a) (title) of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read: 704.05 (5) (a) (title) At the landlord's discretion. 18 19 SECTION 8. 704.05 (5) (a) (intro.) and 1. of the statutes are consolidated, 20 renumbered 704.05(5)(a) 1. and amended to read: 21704.05 (5) (a) 1. If a tenant removes from the premises and leaves personal 22 property, the landlord may do all of the following: 1. Store the personalty, on or off 23the premises, with a lien on the personalty for the actual and reasonable cost of 24removal and storage or, if stored by the landlord, for the actual and reasonable value of storage. The landlord shall give written notice of the storage to the tenant within 25

10 days after the charges begin. The landlord shall give the notice either personally 1 2 or by ordinary mail addressed to the tenant's last-known address and shall state the 3 daily charges for storage. The landlord may not include the cost of damages to the 4 premises or past or future rent due in the amount demanded for satisfaction of the 5 lien. The landlord may not include rent charged for the premises in calculating the cost of storage. SECTION 19. 704.11 of the statutes is amended to read: 1 2 704.11 Lien of landlord. Except as provided in ss. 704.05 (5), 704.90 and 3 779.43 or by express agreement of the parties, the landlord has no right to a lien on 4 the property of the tenant; the common-law right of a landlord to distrain for rent 5 is abolished. 6 SECTION 20. 704.17 (2) (d) of the statutes is created to read: 7 704.17 (2) (d) This subsection does not apply to week-to-week or 8 month-to-month tenants. 9 SECTION 21. 704.27 of the statutes is amended to read: 10 704.27 Damages for failure of tenant to vacate at end of lease or after 11 notice. If a tenant remains in possession without consent of the tenant's landlord after expiration of a lease or termination of a tenancy by notice given by either the 1213landlord or the tenant, or after termination by valid agreement of the parties, the 14landlord may shall, at the landlord's discretion, recover from the tenant damages 15suffered by the landlord because of the failure of the tenant to vacate within the time 16 required. In absence of proof of greater damages, the landlord may shall recover as 17minimum damages twice the rental value apportioned on a daily basis for the time the tenant remains in possession. As used in this section, rental value means the 18 19 amount for which the premises might reasonably have been rented, but not less than 20 the amount actually paid or payable by the tenant for the prior rental period, and 21includes the money equivalent of any obligations undertaken by the tenant as part 22of the rental agreement, such as payment of taxes, insurance and repairs. Nothing 23in this section prevents a landlord from seeking and recovering any other damages  $\mathbf{24}$ to which the landlord may be entitled.

1 agreement with the landlord. If the tenant signs a nonstandard rental provision, it  $\mathbf{2}$ is rebuttably presumed that the landlord has specifically identified and discussed 3 the nonstandard rental provision with the tenant and that the tenant has agreed to 4 it. 5 (3) NORMAL WEAR AND TEAR. This section does not authorize a landlord to 6 withhold any amount from a security deposit for normal wear and tear, or for other 7 damages or losses for which the tenant cannot reasonably be held responsible under 8 applicable law. 9 (4) TIMING FOR RETURN. A landlord shall deliver or mail to a tenant the full 10 amount of any security deposit paid by the tenant, less any amounts that may be 11 withheld under subs. (1) and (2), within 21 days after any of the following: (a) If the tenant vacates the premises on the termination date of the rental 12agreement, the date on which the rental agreement terminates. 1314 (b) If the tenant vacates the premises before the termination date of the rental 15agreement, the date on which the tenant's rental agreement terminates or, if the 16 landlord rerents the premises before the tenant's rental agreement terminates, the date on which the new tenant's tenancy begins. 1718 (c) If the tenant vacates the premises after the termination date of the rental agreement, the date on which the landlord learns that the tenant has vacated the 19 20premises. 21(d) If the tenant is evicted, the date on which a writ of restitution is executed 22or the date on which the landlord learns that the tenant has vacated the premises, 23whichever occurs first. SECTION 23. 704.44 (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:  $\mathbf{24}$
