The substitute amendment changes the date of the presidential preference primary from the 3rd Tuesday in February to the first Tuesday in April in those years in which the president and vice president are elected. The bill also changes the dates of related election events to accommodate the change in the date of the primary.

The substitute amendment also creates a special separate ballot for the presidential preference primary which must be available to electors at least 47 days before the primary. Currently, this ballot is distributed with other office and referendum ballots at least 21 days before the presidential preference primary.
