Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

TRANSPORTATION

DRIVERS AND MOTOR VEHICLES

Under current law, anyone wishing to transport certain radiological materials on a highway must first obtain a permit from DOT. DOT must charge a fee of $1,800 for this permit. Moneys collected from the issuance of these permits are deposited in the general fund and appropriated for providing escort services for the carriers of radiological materials. Under this bill, moneys collected from the issuance of these permits are deposited in the transportation fund.
