ORDER OF THE OFFICE OF CREDIT UNIONS

The Wisconsin Office of Credit Unions proposes an order to repeal DFI-CU 64 relating to procedures for the public inspection and copying of public records of the Office of Credit Unions.

Analysis Prepared by the Office of Credit Unions:

Analysis: To repeal DFI-CU 64. Statutory authority: ss. 186.235(8) and 227.11(2), Stats.

Summary: Ch. DFI-CU 64 outlines procedures for the public inspection and copying of public records of the Office of Credit Unions. 1995 Wisconsin Act 27 created the Department of Financial Institutions (DFI) on July 1, 1996 and the Office of Credit Unions was attached for administrative efficiency. The General Counsel of the Office of the Secretary serves as the custodian for the public records of the Department of Financial Institutions and the Office of Credit Unions. The disclosure of confidential information and records referred to in Ch. DFI-CU 64.02 is addressed in Section 186.235(7), Stats. Chapter 19, Subchapter II Public Records and Property, Stats., outlines procedures and requirements for accessing public records. An Open Records Notice posted in areas accessible by the public provides guidance for accessing the records of the Department of Financial Institutions and the Office of Credit Unions. The repeal of this rule was approved by the Credit Union Review Board pursuant to s. 186.235(8), Stats. Agency person to be contacted for substantive questions and responsible for agency's internal processing: Ginger Larson, Director, Office of Credit Unions, 261-9543.

Text of the Rule:

Section 1. Ch. DFI-CU 64 is repealed.

This rule shall take effect on the first day of the month following publication in the Wisconsin Administrative Register as provided in s.227.22(2)(intro.), Stats.

Dated: 4-14-00
