SECTION 28. Senate rule 33 is amended to read:

SENATE RULE 33. Introduction or offering of new proposals; admissibility of identical proposals; admissibility of resolutions in special session. (1) ~~Any A~~ member may introduce or offer new proposals in accordance with rule 46 (1). Before ~~introducing or offering a member introduces or offers~~ a new proposal to the senate, ~~the member shall cause the legislative reference bureau to~~ shall prepare the proposal in the proper form, and with the requisite number of copies for introduction or offering. A proposal may not be received if it contains handwritten changes in the copies prepared by the legislative reference bureau.

(2) A proposal identical with one already rejected may not be introduced or offered. However, an assembly bill or joint resolution that is identical to a senate bill or joint resolution previously rejected by the senate or any bill repealing a former act of the same biennial session may be introduced or offered.

(3) Resolutions offering commendations, congratulations, or condolences, memorializing congress or an individual, or affecting senate or legislative rules or ~~procedures~~ proceedings are declared not to be within the meaning of the term "business" under the constitutional provision limiting the matters to be considered during special sessions to those enumerated in the governor's call for a special session.

SECTION 29. Senate rule 33 (3) is renumbered senate rule 93 (1d).

SECTION 30. Senate rule 34 (1) and (4) are amended to read:

SENATE RULE 34 (1) All bills and joint resolutions, and all resolutions except those privileged for immediate consideration under rule 69, ~~shall~~, after being distributed, must lay over one day before being considered.

(4) ~~Any proposal for a certificate A proposed citation~~ under joint rule 7 shall, when received by the senate and whether originating in this house or in the assembly, be laid aside to allow time to examine the ~~proposal~~ proposed citation for its appropriateness under compliance with joint rule 7 (1), ~~(1m)~~, and (2). Upon approval by the president and the chief clerk, the ~~proposals~~ citations are ~~deemed considered~~ approved by the senate and shall be so recorded in the journal. If the president or chief clerk refuses to approve a ~~proposal for a certificate~~ proposed citation, the committee on senate organization may require the president and chief clerk to approve it. A written committee report is not necessary.

SECTION 31. Senate rule 35 is amended to read:

SENATE RULE 35. Three separate readings. Every bill, and every joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution, shall must receive 3 separate readings by relating clause ~~previous prior~~ to its passage except where otherwise provided, but shall may not receive 2 readings on the same day.

SECTION 32. Senate rule 36 (1), (1m) and (2) are amended to read:

SENATE RULE 36 (1) On the first reading, every bill requiring 3 readings under rule 35 and all resolutions not privileged by rule 69 shall be referred to the appropriate committee. The president shall determine the appropriate committee ~~shall be determined by the president~~ under rule 46 and ~~shall be announced by the chief clerk~~ shall announce referral under the proper order of business. This rule applies to proposals originating in either house.

(1m) (a) On any legislative day when a report, showing the number and relating clause of proposals introduced or offered ~~for introduction~~ together with the president's referral, has been provided to the members ~~prior to~~ before the 2nd order of business, ~~such the provision shall serve~~ such the provision shall serve as the first reading and the announcement of the referral of ~~such the~~ such the proposals, and the content of the report shall be entered in the daily journal under the appropriate order of business. Rereferral under this rule may be made at any time, but may not be used to satisfy section 13.093 (1) of the statutes.

(b) ~~Whenever the introduction and referral of a senate proposal is introduced or offered and referred or the receipt and referral of an assembly proposal occurs is received and referred on a day on which the senate does not meet, the chief clerk shall record in the journal the appropriate information concerning the proposal and such recording shall constitute clerk's act of recording the proposal in the journal under rule 46 (1) (b) constitutes the proposal's first reading.~~ Whenever the introduction and referral of a senate proposal is introduced or offered and referred or the receipt and referral of an assembly proposal occurs is received and referred on a day on which the senate does not meet, the chief clerk shall record in the journal the appropriate information concerning the proposal and such recording shall constitute clerk's act of recording the proposal in the journal under rule 46 (1) (b) constitutes the proposal's first reading.

(2) (a) All bills introduced in the senate which by any statute require reference in the senate to a particular committee shall be so referred upon first reading and all assembly bills when received from the assembly shall be so referred upon first reading except where the assembly record on the bill discloses that the statutory requirement has been satisfied by reference to the committee in the assembly.

(b) Only one such reference is required under this rule and the adoption of an amendment does not require rereferral, but ~~such~~ rereferral may be ordered by the senate at any time before passage or concurrence.

(c) Notwithstanding par. (a), the president may refer ~~any a~~ a bill that pertains only incidentally to a matter of concern to a joint survey committee directly to the committee appropriate to the major substance of that bill, and in that case shall direct the appropriate joint survey committee to prepare its report on the bill while that bill is in the possession of the other committee. This rule does not suspend the requirement that the report of the appropriate joint survey committee must be received before the bill is given its 2nd reading.

SECTION 33. Senate rule 37 (2) and (3) are amended to read:

SENATE RULE 37 (2) All amendments to ~~the bill~~ a proposal shall be retained in the original bill jacket ~~for the proposal~~.
