ENGROSSED RESOLUTION

Relating to: the life and public service of Debbie Loiselle and Stuart Seffern.

Whereas, Debbie Loiselle and her partner of more than 30 years, Stuart Seffern, passed away unexpectedly on Thursday, January 1, 2009, in a tragic airplane accident in Joliet, Illinois; and

Whereas, Debbie and Stuart were actively involved in state and local government. Stuart served on numerous boards and committees and was representative to the Libertarian Party of Wisconsin. Debbie worked for the Wisconsin Assembly for almost 30 years, where she enjoyed working behind the scenes helping the Assembly operate smoothly. Debbie will be remembered for her kind nature, perpetual smile, witty sense of humor, and her love of life, family, and friends; and

Whereas, Debbie and Stuart also shared a strong commitment to the revitalization of their Burr Oaks Neighborhood. Stuart served as association president, and for the last eight years he and Debbie joined fellow residents on weekly walks to demonstrate the neighborhood's dedication to the betterment of their community. Both Debbie and Stuart enjoyed serving others in their community and standing up for what they believed was right for their neighborhood and for the city of Madison; and

Whereas, Debbie and Stuart enjoyed spending their free time together, attending Badger home and bowl games, flying to visit family in New York, hosting pool parties, taking summer motorcycle trips, and sharing a love of physical fitness. Debbie greatly enjoyed all kinds of exercising and was an avid all-season bicyclist. Stuart sailed, skied, and golfed; and

Whereas, both Debbie and Stuart were loyal friends who without hesitation took the time to listen, provided support to those in need, offered counsel when asked, and most importantly, had the courage to embrace life and live it fully; now, therefore, be it
