OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE ORDER #110

Relating to Creating the Governor's Juvenile Justice Commission

WHEREAS, the Federal Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act requires the composition and appointment of an advisory committee to carry out the functions designated in the Act, and requires that its members be appointed by the Chief Executive of each state; and

WHEREAS, the Office of Justice Assistance is designated by Wisconsin State Statutes to serve as the state planning agency for administering the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act; and

WHEREAS, Executive Order #55 created the Wisconsin Juvenile Justice State Advisory Group, dated January 30, 1989;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, TOMMY G. THOMPSON, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, by the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the laws of this State, and specifically by Wisconsin Statute section 14.019, do hereby repeal Executive Order #55 (dated January 30, 1989) and:

1. Create the Governor's Juvenile Justice Commission, effective January 21, 1991, to serve as the primary body responsible for the implementation of the Act in Wisconsin, with membership composition as specified in the federal Act, to serve at the pleasure of the Governor.
2. Designate the Commission to advise the Governor and the Legislature on matters concerning juvenile justice.
3. Provide that staffing for the Commission shall be provided by the Office of Justice Assistance.
4. Provide that the expenses of the members of the Commission be paid by the Office of Justice Assistance.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this sixth day of February in the year one thousand nine hundred and ninety-one.
