

WISCONSIN LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL ACT MEMO

2005 Wisconsin Act 69
[2005 Assembly Bill 501]

Corrections on a Marriage Certificate

2005 Wisconsin Act 69 requires the State Registrar to prepare a new marriage certificate if a court determination changes information on the marriage certificate concerning the identity of a parent of a party to the marriage. On the new marriage certificate, the State Registrar must omit the changed information concerning the identity of a parent of a party to the marriage, enter the unchanged information from the original certificate, and enter any new information included in the court order concerning the identity of a parent of a party to the marriage. The State Registrar may not note that the certificate is amended.

Effective Date: The Act took effect on January 6, 2006.

Prepared by: Anne Sappenfield, Senior Staff Attorney

January 12, 2006

AS:rv

This memo provides a brief description of the Act. For more detailed information, consult the text of the law and related legislative documents at the Legislature's Web site at: <http://www.legis.state.wi.us/>.