1     Relating to: proclaiming Armed Forces Day.

2           Whereas, throughout this nation's history, citizens have relied on the armed 3 forces to protect the United States' interests, to oppose aggression by foreign powers 4 and to keep the peace; and

5           Whereas, the U.S. armed forces, to perform their duties, have frequently had 6 to go to war; and

7           Whereas, during this nation's wars millions of members of the armed forces 8 have contributed to the cause; many have faced danger bravely; and many have died 9 or been wounded; and

10          Whereas, even during peacetime the U.S. armed forces have stood ready to face 11 danger and have prepared themselves to do so effectively; and

12          Whereas, the citizens of this country need constantly to remember, and be 13 grateful for, the services and sacrifices of this country's armed forces throughout this 14 nation's history; and 15          Whereas, one way to rekindle those feelings is by designating a day on which 16 to focus our attention on the armed forces; now, therefore, be it
