1999 SENATE BILL 311

December 22, 1999 – Introduced by Senators Burke, Huelsman and Rosenzweig, cosponsored by Representatives Bock, Berceau, La Fave, Morris-Tatum, Richards, Riley and Wasserman. Referred to Committee on Judiciary and Consumer Affairs.

- 1 AN ACT to create 941.39 of the statutes; relating to: instructing persons to use
- 2 weapons or techniques to cause civil disorders and providing a penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, various acts which endanger or harm others are defined as crimes. This bill defines a new crime. Any person who instructs others about weapons or techniques capable of causing injury or death is guilty of a Class D felony if he or she knows that the information imparted by the instruction will be unlawfully used in a civil disorder. Upon conviction, the person may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years or both, if the offense occurs before December 31, 1999, or may be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than ten years or both, if the offense occurs on or after December 31, 1999.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

- 3 Section 1. 941.39 of the statutes is created to read:
