The deduction applies to assets that were stolen from, hidden from or otherwise lost by such a victim if the assets were owned by the victim during any period from 1920 to 1945 and if the settlement or assets have been recovered, returned or otherwise paid to the original victim or his or her heirs or beneficiaries. The assets to which the deduction applies include cash, bonds, stocks, deposits in a financial institution, proceeds from a life or other type of insurance policy, jewelry, precious metals, artwork or any other item of value.
