Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

With some exceptions, this bill prohibits local governmental units (cities, villages, towns, counties, and school districts) from requiring, as a condition of employment, that any nonelective employee or prospective employee reside within any jurisdictional limits. Exceptions to the general prohibition include certain public officials appointed by the mayor of a 1st class city (presently only Milwaukee) and certain school board officials. In addition, the prohibition does not apply to any other state law requiring residency for a municipal position or to any state or municipal requirement for state residency.

The bill also allows a local governmental unit to impose a residency requirement on police officers or firefighters that may not require such personnel to live closer than 15 miles outside of the boundary of the local governmental unit, although such personnel may choose to live closer to the boundary of the local governmental unit than the distance specified in the ordinance. If, however, a local governmental unit has in effect a less restrictive residency requirement on the effective date of the bill that applies to police officers or firefighters who are employed by the local governmental unit on the effective date of the bill, such personnel would not be subject to a stricter residency requirement that is enacted by the local governmental unit.
