2             Whereas, Jean Nicolet discovered the Green Bay area in 1634, just 14 years
3     after the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock, making it the oldest settlement in 4     Wisconsin; and

5             Whereas, Nicolet named the bay “La Baie Verte” because of its greenish color, 6     but first it was La Baie des Puants — the Bay of the Stinking Water; and

7             Whereas, when Nicolet arrived, the area’s inhabitants were the Winnebagos, 8     a Sioux-speaking tribe; and

9             Whereas, it was with the Winnebagos that Nicolet spent the winter, exploring 10    the waterway beyond La Baie, and forming alliances important to commerce, before 11    returning to Quebec in 1635; and

12            Whereas, after Nicolet’s departure from the region, no extended stays were 13    made at La Baie until Pere Claude Allouez established St. Francis Xavier Mission

1           Whereas, the French made no attempt to populate the area before they were

3 George Washington by Charles de Langlade who was a half-French Ottawa war 4 chief; and

8           Whereas, in the 1850’s, immigrants from Belgium, Germany, Scandinavia, 9 Ireland, and Holland settled in the area due to the cheap land and good soil; and

10           Whereas, on February 27, 1854, the legislature incorporated Green Bay as a 11 city, making it the 9th city of the State of Wisconsin with William C. E. Thomas as 12 its first mayor; and

13           Whereas, in the 1860’s, the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad linked the area
14 to other parts of the state, greatly enhancing business opportunities, and Green Bay 15 became an international port with domestic and international trade; and

16           Whereas, on April 16, 1895, the city of Fort Howard and the city of Green Bay 17 were consolidated to form one city, the city of Green Bay; and

18           Whereas, in 1895 the first paper mill in Green Bay was built, giving birth to the 19 city’s largest local industry, which remains the city’s largest employer to this day; and

20           Whereas, in the 1920’s, Green Bay’s meat-packing industry provided a name
21 for a company-sponsored “sandlot” football team, and the Green Bay Packers soon 22 became one of 2 charter teams of the National Football League; and

23           Whereas, the Green Bay Packers is the only NFL team that is a publicly owned 24 corporation, and its heritage and tradition along with many successes on the gridiron

1 have brought invaluable name recognition across the world to the Green Bay area;
2 and

3 Whereas, Green Bay has received many accolades, such as receiving in 1999 an 4 All-America City Award by the National Civic League, and being named by Industry
5 Week as one of its “world class communities,” ranking it 21st in overall 6 manufacturing performance of all cities, and 6th in job creation for cities under 7 250,000; and

8 Whereas, the people of Green Bay are today, like their ancestors, progressive 9 thinking, hard-working people committed to their families, their faith, their work, 10 and their community; and

11 Whereas on Friday, February 27, 2004, Green Bay will celebrate the 12 sesquicentennial anniversary of the official chartering of the city of Green Bay; now,
