Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law directs each school district's school attendance officer to annually determine how many pupils enrolled in the school district were absent in the previous year and whether the absences were excused and to notify the Department of Public Instruction of his or her determination.

This bill eliminates this requirement.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. 118.16 (2) (b) of the statutes is repealed.
