Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This proposed constitutional amendment, proposed to the 2005 legislature on first consideration, deletes from the constitution the office of state treasurer.

State treasurer

Currently, the only duty assigned to the state treasurer by the constitution is to serve as a member of the board of commissioners for the sale of public lands; all other duties are prescribed by law. The proposal removes the state treasurer as a member of the board of commissioners and substitutes the governor or the lieutenant governor, if designated by the governor.

The last election for state treasurer required by the constitution will be the one held in November 2006. The incumbent will continue to serve until the first Monday in January 2011.
