Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Currently, the Department of Administration (DOA) is directed to promulgate and enforce rules of conduct for property that is leased or managed by DOA, which includes the state capitol building. The rules may prescribe penalties for violations within certain limitations specified by law.

This bill provides that DOA shall not enforce any rule or policy relating to public access to the state capitol building that would infringe upon the rights of any resident of this state under the U.S. Constitution and the constitution of this state to freedom of speech or assembly or to petition the government.
