

State of Misconsin 2011 - 2012 LEGISLATURE

2011 SENATE BILL 168

August 11, 2011 – Introduced by Senators S. COGGS and RISSER, cosponsored by Representatives YOUNG, STASKUNAS, BERCEAU and FIELDS. Referred to Committee on Judiciary, Utilities, Commerce, and Government Operations.

AN ACT to amend 175.35 (2f), 175.35 (2g) (b), 175.35 (2g) (c) (intro.), 175.35 (2i), 175.35 (2j), 175.35 (2k) (ar) 2., 175.35 (2k) (b) 2. a., 175.35 (2k) (g), 175.35 (2k) (h) and 175.35 (3); and to create 175.35 (2g) (c) 5. and 175.35 (2gm) of the statutes; relating to: requiring a firearms restrictions record search for transfers of handguns that do not involve a firearms dealer, requiring the exercise of rule-making authority, and providing a penalty.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a firearms dealer must request that the Department of Justice (DOJ) perform a firearms restrictions record search on a handgun purchaser before the dealer may complete a sale of a handgun to the purchaser. If DOJ does not identify any firearms restrictions or if DOJ fails to complete the record search within 48 hours after receiving the request, subject to a limited extension, the firearms dealer may complete the sale. A person may be prohibited from possessing a firearm for several reasons, including that he or she is a felon or, in connection with a civil commitment or a domestic abuse injunction, has been ordered not to possess a firearm. A firearms dealer who intentionally violates the firearms restrictions record search requirements or a handgun purchaser who intentionally provides false information to a firearms dealer in connection with a record search is subject to a fine of not less than $500 and not more than $10,000 and may be imprisoned for up to nine months.

SENATE BILL 168

This bill requires a firearms restrictions record search for transfers of handguns that do not involve a firearms dealer. A person who is not a firearms dealer may not transfer a handgun to another person who is not a firearms dealer unless all of the following steps are completed: the person who is to receive the handgun submits a request to a firearms dealer for a record search; the firearms dealer requests that DOJ perform the record search; and the firearms dealer notifies the person who is transferring the handgun either that the record search did not reveal any firearms restrictions for the person who is to receive the handgun or that the time period for running a record search expired. The bill allows a firearms dealer to charge the person who is to receive the handgun the $13 fee charged by DOJ for record searches plus an additional $5. Any person who intentionally transfers a handgun in violation of the requirements in this bill or any transferee who intentionally provides false information in connection with a firearms restrictions record search is subject to a fine of not less than $500 and not more than $10,000 and may be imprisoned for up to nine months.

Because this bill creates a new crime or revises a penalty for an existing crime, the Joint Review Committee on Criminal Penalties may be requested to prepare a report concerning the proposed penalty and the costs or savings that are likely to result if the bill is enacted.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
