The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

JOINT LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL PREFATORY NOTE: This bill was prepared for the Joint Legislative Council's Special Committee on Permanency for Young Children in the Child Welfare System.

Posttermination Contact Agreement

Under current law, a termination of parental rights (TPR) order permanently severs all legal rights and duties between a birth parent and the child. Current law does, however, permit the court assigned to exercise jurisdiction under the Children's Code (juvenile court) to order visitation by a birth parent of a child placed in sustaining care following a TPR. Current law also permits the juvenile court, in the case of a child who is adopted by a stepparent or relative, to grant reasonable visitation rights to a relative of the child who has maintained a relationship similar to a parent-like relationship with the child if the juvenile court determines that the visitation is in the best interests of the child and that the relative will not undermine the adoptive parents' relationship with the child.

Also under current law, the juvenile court is required to consider certain factors in determining whether TPR would be in the best interests of the child. One of those factors is whether the child has substantial relationships with the parent or other family members, and whether it would be harmful to the child to sever those relationships. The Wisconsin Supreme Court held, in State v. Margaret H., 2000 WI 42, that the severance of substantial relationships factor requires the juvenile court to examine the impact of a legal severance of those relationships on the broader relationships existing between the child and his or her family and that the juvenile court, in its discretion, may afford due weight to an adoptive parent's stated intent to permit continued visitation between the child and his or her pretermination family, even though such a promise is legally unenforceable after TPR and adoption.

This bill permits a posttermination contact agreement to be entered into between the proposed adoptive parents or guardian of a child and a relative of the child at any time before a TPR order is granted if: 1) the child is in the legal custody or under the supervision or guardianship of an agency; and 2) the child, if 12 years of age or over, consents to the terms of the agreement.

ASSEMBLY BILL 150

Terms of the Agreement

Under the bill, a posttermination contact agreement may provide for any of the following:

1. Visitation between the child and a relative of the child.
2. Future contact and communication between the child, adoptive parent, or guardian and a relative of the child.
3. The sharing of information about the child in the future between the adoptive parent or guardian and a relative of the child.
4. The maintenance and sharing of the medical and genetic history of any relative who is a party to the agreement.

A posttermination contact agreement must contain: 1) an acknowledgement by all relatives who are parties to the agreement that, subject to certain exceptions under current law, the TPR and adoption are irrevocable and that failure by a party to comply with the agreement is not grounds to revoke the TPR or adoption; 2) an acknowledgement by the proposed adoptive parents or guardian that the agreement is enforceable by any person who is permitted posttermination visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information under the agreement; and 3) a statement by all parties to the agreement that the agreement was entered into voluntarily and with understanding of the terms of the agreement, that no promises or threats were made to coerce any person into entering into the agreement, and that the parties have not relied on any representations other than those contained in the agreement.

Approval of the Agreement

Under the bill, at the time a TPR order is granted, a juvenile court may approve a posttermination contact agreement if: 1) the child and the parent meet the conditions for entering into the agreement; 2) the agreement contains the required provisions; 3) the parties to the agreement, including the parent and child, if 12 years of age or over, sign the agreement; 4) the agency, the child's guardian ad litem, or, in the case of an Indian child, the tribal child welfare department of the Indian child's tribe files the agreement; 5) the juvenile court addresses all parties to the agreement and determines that the agreement was entered into voluntarily and with understanding of the terms of the agreement, that no promises or threats were made to coerce any person into entering into the agreement, and that the parties have not relied on any representations other than those contained in the agreement; 6) the agency, the child's guardian ad litem, and, in the case of an Indian child, the Indian child's tribe submit to the juvenile court recommendations concerning the granting of posttermination visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information as provided for in the agreement; 7) the juvenile court determines that the relative will not undermine the adoptive parents' or guardian's relationship with the child; and 8) the juvenile court determines that granting posttermination visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information as provided for in the agreement would be in the best interests of the child.

In determining whether granting posttermination visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information as provided for in the agreement would be in the best interests of the child, the juvenile court must consider: 1) whether the child has substantial relationships with the person who would have visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information under the agreement, and whether it would be harmful to the child not to preserve those relationships; 2) any special needs of the child and how those special needs would be affected by visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information as provided for in the agreement; 3) the specific terms of the agreement and the likelihood that the parties will cooperate in complying with the agreement; 4) the recommendations of the agency, the child's guardian ad litem, and, in the case of an Indian child, the Indian child's tribe; and 5) any other factors that are relevant to the best interests of the child.

The bill requires the juvenile court, in evaluating the TPR factor of a child's substantial relationship with pretermination family members, to consider the terms of any posttermination contact agreement that has been entered into with respect to the child and permits the juvenile court to consider any other agreement by a proposed adoptive parent or guardian to permit contact between the child and his or her pretermination family after adoption of the child.

Enforcement of the Agreement

Under the bill, a posttermination contact agreement that has been approved by the juvenile court is enforceable by the juvenile court. Before petitioning the juvenile court for specific performance of the agreement, however, the petitioner must participate, or attempt to participate, in good faith in formal or informal mediation or other appropriate dispute resolution proceedings to resolve the dispute giving rise to the filing of the petition.

If the juvenile court finds that a person is not in compliance with the agreement, that enforcement of the agreement is in the best interests of the child, and that the petitioner, before filing the petition, participated, or attempted to participate, in good faith in formal or informal mediation or other appropriate dispute resolution proceedings to resolve the dispute giving rise to the filing of the petition, the juvenile court must issue an order requiring specific performance of the agreement, which order is the sole remedy for noncompliance with the agreement.

Termination or Modification of the Agreement

The bill provides that a posttermination contact agreement that has been approved by the juvenile court may be terminated or modified by agreement of the parties, which the juvenile court must approve if it finds that the termination or modification would be in the best interests of the child.

The juvenile court may also terminate or modify an agreement if a party shows that the termination or modification would be in the best interests of the child, or that there has been a substantial change in circumstances since the entry of the last order affecting the agreement, and that the petitioner, before filing the petition, participated, or attempted to participate, in good faith in formal or informal mediation or other appropriate dispute resolution proceedings to resolve the dispute giving rise to the filing of the petition. An order upon a petition to modify an approved posttermination contact agreement may limit, restrict, condition, or decrease visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information between the child and a relative of the child, but may not expand that visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information or place any new obligations on the adoptive parent or guardian.

Sharing of Home Study Report

Under current law, records and papers pertaining to an adoption proceeding may not be disclosed except under certain statutory exceptions or by order of the juvenile court for good cause shown.

The bill permits a proposed adoptive parent whose home is the subject of an investigation to determine whether the home is suitable for the child (home study) to ask the agency conducting the home study to disclose its report of the home study to another agency authorized to place children for adoption, the state adoption information exchange, or the state adoption center. Within ten days after receipt of such a request, the agency must disclose the report to the person named in the request, unless within those ten days the agency petitions the juvenile court for an order permitting the agency not to disclose the report, to restrict the information to be disclosed, or to defer disclosure of the report to a later date or for such other appropriate relief as the agency may request and the juvenile court finds good cause for granting the relief requested.

Disclosure of Name and Address of an Out-of-Home Placement

ASSEMBLY BILL 150

Under current law, if a child or juvenile is removed from the home and placed in custody, the child in need of protection or services (CHIPS) petition or petition filed under the Juvenile Justice Code must include the place where the child or juvenile is being held unless there is reasonable cause to believe disclosure would result in imminent danger to the child, juvenile, or physical custodian.

Also, before a child is adjudged to be in need of protection or services, the Department of Children and Families (DCF), a county department of human or social services (county department), or a child welfare agency must submit a report to the juvenile court that includes the name and address of the foster parent if the report recommends out-of-home placement (court report). A copy of the court report must be given to the child's parent or guardian. However, the juvenile court may order that the name and address of the foster parent be withheld and not included in the copy of the court report given to the child's parent or guardian if the juvenile court finds that disclosure would result in imminent danger to the child or to the foster parent. The juvenile court must hold a hearing on this matter prior to ordering that the information be withheld.

The juvenile court may also order the name and address of a foster parent be withheld in the copy of the dispositional order given to the child's parent or guardian if the juvenile court holds a hearing and finds that disclosure would result in imminent harm to the child or foster parent. Current law does not include a confidentiality provision for withholding this information if there is a change in out-of-home placement.

This bill creates a procedure for a juvenile court to order the name and address of any out-of-home placement to be withheld from the copy of the CHIPS petition, petition filed under the Juvenile Justice Code, court report, or dispositional order that is given to a child or juvenile's parent or guardian if, after holding a hearing on the matter with notice given to the parent or guardian, the juvenile court finds that disclosure is not in the best interests of the child.

Likewise, the bill also permits the name and address of a proposed out-of-home placement to be withheld from the change-in-placement notice given to the child or juvenile's parent or guardian, and if the child or juvenile is an Indian child or Indian juvenile, the Indian child or Indian juvenile's parent or Indian custodian, if the person or agency primarily responsible for implementing the dispositional order, the district attorney, or the corporation counsel reasonably believes that withholding this information is in the best interests of the child. The juvenile court must then hold a hearing on this matter after giving notice to the child or juvenile's parent or guardian, and if the child or juvenile is an Indian child or juvenile, the Indian child or juvenile's custodian and tribe. The juvenile court must order that this information be disclosed if it finds that withholding the information is not in the best interests of the child or juvenile.

Home Study of An Adoptive Parent

Under current law, after an adoption petition is filed, the juvenile court must order an investigation to determine whether the child is a proper subject for adoption and whether the proposed adoptive parent's home is suitable for the child. The home of a proposed adoptive parent must be investigated for adoption purposes even if the proposed adoptive parent has obtained a license to operate a foster home.

This bill eliminates the requirement for a home study to be conducted for purposes of an adoption if all of the following apply: 1) the proposed adoptive parent's home is a foster home certified to provide level 2 care; 2) the proposed adoptive parent is licensed to operate his or her home as a foster home certified to provide level 2 care and the license is effective at the time the adoption petition is filed; 3) the proposed adoptive parent has never had a license to operate a foster home revoked or suspended; 4) the child to be adopted has resided in the home for 12 consecutive months or more immediately prior to the filing of the adoption petition; and 5) the foster home investigation was conducted in accordance with standards established by DCF for investigating a foster home that will be converting into an adoptive home.

Disclosure of Last-Known Address of an Adoptive Parent or Proposed Adoptive Parent

Current law requires DCF, a county department, or a child welfare agency to include in a child's permanency plan, which is a plan designed to ensure that the child quickly attains a placement or home providing long-term stability, a statement as to the availability of a safe and appropriate placement for the child with a foster parent, adoptive parent, or proposed adoptive parent of a sibling of the child. Current law also requires DCF, a county department, or a child welfare agency, before placing for adoption a child who has a sibling who has been adopted or has been placed for adoption, to consider the availability of a placement for adoption with an adoptive parent or proposed adoptive parent of a sibling of the child who is identified in the child's permanency plan or who is otherwise known by DCF, the county department, or the child welfare agency. However, those records and papers must be kept in a separate locked file and may not be disclosed except under certain exceptions or by order of the juvenile court for good cause shown.

This bill permits records and papers pertaining to an adoption proceeding to be disclosed for purposes of determining the availability of a placement for a child with an adoptive parent or proposed adoptive parent of a sibling of the child.

Tribal Court Proceeding for a Suspension of Parental Rights or an Adoption Under Tribal Law or Custom

In 2009, Wisconsin incorporated the Federal Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) in the Children's Code and the Juvenile Justice Code.

In very general terms, ICWA applies to certain child custody proceedings in state courts involving an Indian child, and requires certain notices, findings, and placement preferences in state court child custody proceedings under certain circumstances. ICWA provides for tribal court jurisdiction in some circumstances and also provides a process for a tribe to assume exclusive jurisdiction of a state court's child custody proceeding under certain circumstances.

ICWA accords full faith and credit by the state to a tribal court's Indian child custody proceeding, just as the state would to a judicial proceeding of any other governmental entity.

An "Indian child custody proceeding" in a state court means an action for an adoptive placement, an out-of-home care placement, a preadoptive placement, or a TPR. That definition, however, does not include a proceeding in a tribal court for a suspension, rather than a termination, of parental rights, or an adoption under tribal law or custom.

This bill provides definitions for an "adoption under tribal law or custom" and a "suspension of parental rights," and provides that such actions by a tribal court are accorded full faith and credit by a state court.

Jurisdiction and Venue for an Adoption Petition

Under current law, the juvenile court of the county where the proposed adoptive parent or child resides, upon the filing of a petition for adoption or for the adoptive placement of a child, has jurisdiction over the child until the adoption petition is withdrawn, denied, or granted. Similarly, the venue for an adoption petition is the county where the proposed adoptive parent or child resides at the time that the petition is filed. The juvenile court may, however, transfer the case to another juvenile court in the county in which the proposed adoptive parents reside.

This bill extends jurisdiction over and venue for an adoption petition to the juvenile court in the county where the TPR petition was filed.

ASSEMBLY BILL 150

1 48.02 (1c) “Adoption under tribal law or custom” means an adoption recognized
2 by an Indian child’s tribe that gives a child a permanent parent-child relationship
3 with an individual other than a biological parent.

10 child.

NOTE: This SECTION modifies the definitions of “former Indian custodian” and “former parent” in the Wisconsin Indian Child Welfare Act (WICWA) to specify that a former parent or former Indian custodian in a state court proceeding includes a person who had parental rights or custodial responsibilities prior to a suspension of parental rights by a tribal court.

8 suspension of parental rights or an adoption under tribal law or custom, to the same 9 extent that the state gives full faith and credit to the public acts, records, and judicial 10 proceedings of any other governmental entity.

NOTE: This SECTION specifies that a state court must accord full faith and credit to a tribal court’s order for a suspension of parental rights or an adoption under tribal law or custom.

11 SECTION 6. 48.23 (2g) of the statutes is amended to read:

16 parental rights to the Indian child, the Indian child’s parent or Indian custodian
17 shall have the right to be represented by counsel as provided in subs. (2) and (4).

ASSEMBLY BILL 150

1 reasonable cause to believe that such disclosure would result in imminent danger to 2 the child or physical custodian is not in the best interests of the child.

NOTE: This SECTION amends the standard for when the location of a child may not be disclosed in a CHIPS petition. It changes the standard from "imminent danger to the child or physical custodian" to "best interests of the child."

3 SECTION 8. 48.33 (5) of the statutes is renumbered 48.33 (5) (a) and amended
4 to read:

5 48.33 (5) (a) If Except as provided in par. (b), if the report recommends 6 placement in a foster home, and the name of the foster parent is not available at the 7 time the report is filed, the agency shall provide the court and the child's parent or 8 guardian with the name and address of the foster parent within 21 days after the 9 dispositional order is entered, ~~except that the court may order the information~~
10 ~~withheld from the child's parent or guardian if the court finds that disclosure would~~ 11 ~~result in imminent danger to the child or to the foster parent. After notifying the~~ 12 ~~child's parent or guardian, the court shall hold a hearing prior to ordering the~~ 13 ~~information withheld.~~

14 SECTION 9. 48.33 (5) (b) of the statutes is created to read:

18 of the name and address of the placement is not in the best interests of the child.
19 After notifying the child's parent or guardian, the court shall hold a hearing prior to 20 ordering that the information be withheld.

NOTE: SECTIONS 8 and 9 allow the juvenile court to order the name and address of the recommended out-of-home placement to be withheld from the copy of the court report that is given to the child's parent or guardian if the juvenile court finds that disclosure is not in the best interests of the child. The juvenile court may not order that this information be withheld until a hearing is held on the issue, with notice of the hearing given to the child's parent or guardian.

ASSEMBLY BILL 150

1 SECTION 10. 48.355 (2) (b) 2. of the statutes is amended to read:

2 48.355 (2) (b) 2. If Except as provided in subd. 2g., if the child is placed outside
3 the home, the name of the place or facility, including transitional placements, where

5 if the name and address of the foster parent is not available at the time of the order,
6 the name and address of the foster parent shall be furnished to the court and the 7 parent within 21 days after the order. ~~If, after a hearing on the issue with due notice~~
8 ~~to the parent or guardian, the judge finds that disclosure of the identity of the foster~~
9 ~~parent would result in imminent danger to the child or the foster parent, the judge~~
10 ~~may order the name and address of the prospective foster parents to be withheld from~~ 11 ~~the parent or guardian.~~

12 SECTION 11. 48.355 (2) (b) 2g. of the statutes is created to read:

13 48.355 (2) (b) 2g. If the child is placed outside the home, the court may order 14 the name and address of the placement to be withheld from the child's parent or 15 guardian if the court finds that disclosure of the name and address of the placement
16 is not in the best interests of the child. After notifying the child's parent or guardian, 17 the court shall hold a hearing prior to ordering that the information be withheld.

NOTE: SECTIONS 10 and 11 allow the juvenile court to order the name and address of the out-of-home placement to be withheld from the copy of the CHIPS dispositional order that is given to the child's parent or guardian if the juvenile court finds that disclosure is not in the best interests of the child. The juvenile court may not order that this information be withheld until a hearing is held on the issue, with notice of the hearing given to the child's parent or guardian.

18 SECTION 12. 48.357 (1) (am) 1. of the statutes is amended to read:

19 48.357 (1) (am) 1. If Except as provided in subd. 1r., if the proposed change in 20 placement involves any change in placement other than a change in placement 21 specified in par. (c), the person or agency primarily responsible for implementing the 22 dispositional order, the district attorney, or the corporation counsel shall cause

ASSEMBLY BILL 150

1 written notice of the proposed change in placement to be sent to the child, the parent,
2 guardian, and legal custodian of the child, any foster parent or other physical 3 custodian described in s. 48.62 (2) of the child, the child's court-appointed special
4 advocate, and, if the child is an Indian child who has been removed from the home
5 of his or her parent or Indian custodian, the Indian child's Indian custodian and tribe.
6 If the child is the expectant mother of an unborn child under s. 48.133, written notice
7 shall also be sent to the unborn child by the unborn child's guardian ad litem. If the 8 change in placement involves an adult expectant mother of an unborn child under 9 s. 48.133, written notice shall be sent to the adult expectant mother and the unborn
10 child by the unborn child's guardian ad litem. The notice shall contain the name and 11 address of the new placement, the reasons for the change in placement, a statement 12 describing why the new placement is preferable to the present placement, and a 13 statement of how the new placement satisfies objectives of the treatment plan 14 ordered by the court.

15 SECTION 13. 48.357 (1) (am) 1r. of the statutes is created to read:

16 48.357 (1) (am) 1r. If the person or agency primarily responsible for 17 implementing the dispositional order, the district attorney, or the corporation 18 counsel reasonably believes that withholding the name and address of the new 19 placement is in the best interests of the child, the person or agency primarily 20 responsible for implementing the dispositional order, the district attorney, or the 21 corporation counsel may cause written notice of the proposed change in placement 22 under subd. 1. to be sent to the child's parent or guardian without disclosure of the 23 name and address of the new placement. The court shall hold a hearing to determine 24 whether withholding the name and address of the placement is in the best interests 25 of the child with due notice to the child's parent or guardian, and if the child is an

ASSEMBLY BILL 150

1 Indian child, the Indian child's Indian custodian and tribe. If, after a hearing on the 2 issue, the court finds that withholding the name and address of the new placement
3 is not in the best interests of the child, the court shall order the name and address
4 to be disclosed to the parent or guardian, and if the child is an Indian child his or her
5 parent or Indian custodian.

NOTE: SECTIONS 12 and 13 allow the name and address of a proposed change in out-of-home placement to be withheld from the written notice of the proposed change in placement that is given to the child's parent or custodian, and if the child is an Indian child, the Indian child's parent or Indian custodian, if the person or agency primarily responsible for implementing the dispositional order, the district attorney, or the corporation counsel reasonably believes that disclosure of this information is not in the best interests of the child.

If the name and address of the new placement is withheld, the juvenile court must hold a hearing to determine whether disclosure of the name and address is in the best interests of the child, after notice is given to the child's parent or custodian, and if the child is an Indian child, the Indian child's parent or Indian custodian and tribe. The juvenile court must order disclosure of the name and address of the placement if it finds that withholding that information is not in the best interests of the child.

6 SECTION 14. 48.357 (1) (c) 2. of the statutes is amended to read:

7 48.357 (1) (c) 2. The court shall hold a hearing prior to ordering any change in 8 placement requested under subd. 1. ~~Not~~ Except as provided in subd. 2g., not less
9 than 3 days prior to the hearing, the court shall provide notice of the hearing, 10 together with a copy of the request for the change in placement, to the child, the 11 parent, guardian, and legal custodian of the child, the child's court-appointed special 12 advocate, all parties that are bound by the dispositional order, and, if the child is an 13 Indian child, the Indian child's Indian custodian and tribe. Subject to subd. 2r., if all 14 parties consent, the court may proceed immediately with the hearing.

15 SECTION 15. 48.357 (1) (c) 2g. of the statutes is created to read:

7 purposes of the application of s. 48.028 and the federal Indian Child Welfare Act, 25

22 (b) The agreement contains the provisions specified in sub. (3) (a) to (c).

23 (c) The agreement is signed by all parties to the agreement including the parent

8 child welfare department shall comply with this paragraph by including in the court 9 report under s. 48.425 (1) the statement under s. 48.425 (1) (h) and attaching the 14 to coerce any person into entering into the agreement, and that the parties have not 15 relied on any representations other than those contained in the agreement.

24 posttermination visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information as 25 provided for in the agreement would be in the best interests of the child. In

ASSEMBLY BILL 150

1 determining whether granting posttermination visitation, contact, communication,
2 or sharing of information as provided for in the agreement would be in the best
3 interests of the child, the court shall consider all of the following factors:

4 1. Whether the child has substantial relationships with the person who would 5 have visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information under the 6 agreement, and whether it would be harmful to the child not to preserve those 7 relationships.

8 2. Any special needs of the child and how those special needs would be affected 9 by visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information as provided for in 10 the agreement.

19 (5) ENFORCEMENT OF POSTTERMINATION CONTACT AGREEMENT. (a) A 20 posttermination contact agreement is enforceable only if the agreement is approved
21 by the court under sub. (4). Any party to an approved posttermination contact 22 agreement may petition the court that approved the agreement for specific 23 performance of the agreement. The petition shall allege facts sufficient to show that 24 a person who is bound by the agreement is not in compliance with the agreement, 25 that enforcement of the agreement is in the best interests of the child in light of the

ASSEMBLY BILL 150

1 factors specified in sub. (4) (h), and that the petitioner, before filing the petition,
2 participated, or attempted to participate, in good faith in formal or informal
3 mediation or other appropriate dispute resolution proceedings to resolve the dispute
4 giving rise to the filing of the petition.

5 (b) The court shall set a date and time for a hearing on a petition filed under 6 par. (a) and shall provide notice of the hearing to the petitioner and to all other

9 parental rights, and, in the case of an Indian child, the Indian child's tribe. The 10 hearing shall take place on a date that allows the persons notified of the hearing a 11 reasonable time to prepare, but is no more than 30 days after the filing of the petition.

12 (c) If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that any person bound 13 by an approved posttermination contact agreement is not in compliance with the 14 agreement; that enforcement of the agreement is in the best interests of the child in 15 light of the factors specified in sub. (4) (h); and that the petitioner, before filing the 16 petition, participated, or attempted to participate, in good faith in formal or informal
17 mediation or other appropriate dispute resolution proceedings to resolve the dispute 18 giving rise to the filing of the petition, the court shall issue an order requiring specific 19 performance of the agreement. An order for specific performance shall be the sole 20 remedy for any noncompliance with the agreement.

21 (d) A court may not award damages, costs, or attorney fees or revoke a 22 termination of parental rights order or an order of adoption because a party to a 23 posttermination contact agreement fails to comply with the agreement.

24 (6) TERMINATION OR MODIFICATION OF POSTTERMINATION CONTACT AGREEMENT. (a)
25 The parties to an approved posttermination contact agreement may agree to

ASSEMBLY BILL 150

1 terminate or modify the agreement. If the parties agree to terminate or modify the 2 agreement and if the child, if 12 years of age or over, consents to the termination or 3 modification, the parties shall sign and file with the court that approved the 4 agreement the modified agreement or a stipulation terminating the agreement. If,
5 after reviewing the stipulation or modified agreement, the court finds by clear and 6 convincing evidence that termination or modification of the agreement would be in 7 the best interests of the child in light of the factors specified in sub. (4) (h), the court
8 shall, without a hearing, approve the termination or modification of the agreement.

9 (b) 1. Any party to an approved posttermination contact agreement may 10 petition the court that approved the agreement to terminate or modify the 11 agreement. The petition shall allege facts sufficient to show that termination or 12 modification of the agreement would be in the best interests of the child in light of 13 the factors specified in sub. (4) (h), or that there has been a substantial change in 14 circumstances since the entry of the last order affecting the agreement, and that the 15 petitioner, before filing the petition, participated, or attempted to participate, in good
16 faith in formal or informal mediation or other appropriate dispute resolution
17 proceedings to resolve the issue giving rise to the filing of the petition.

18 2. The court shall set a date and time for a hearing on a petition under subd.
19 1. and shall provide notice of the hearing to the petitioner and to all other parties to 20 the approved posttermination contact agreement, the agency that had guardianship,
21 legal custody, or supervision of the child before the termination of parental rights,
22 and, in the case of an Indian child, the Indian child's tribe. The hearing shall take 23 place on a date that allows the persons notified of the hearing a reasonable time to 24 prepare, but is no more than 30 days after the filing of the petition.

ASSEMBLY BILL 150

1 3. Notwithstanding s. 48.01 (1) (intro.) and (2), the court may terminate or 2 modify the approved posttermination contact agreement if the court finds by clear
3 and convincing evidence that termination or modification of the agreement would be 4 in the best interests of the child in light of the factors specified in sub. (4) (h), or that 5 there has been a substantial change in circumstances since the entry of the last order
6 affecting the agreement, and that the petitioner, before filing the petition,
7 participated, or attempted to participate, in good faith in formal or informal
8 mediation or other appropriate dispute resolution proceedings to resolve the issue
9 giving rise to the filing of the petition. An order to modify an approved 10 posttermination contact agreement may limit, restrict, condition, or decrease 11 visitation, contact, communication, or sharing of information between the child and 12 a birth relative of the child, but may not expand, enlarge, or increase that visitation, 13 contact, communication, or sharing of information or place any new obligation on the 14 adoptive parent or agency having guardianship, legal custody, or supervision of the 15 child.
