1 AN ACT to amend 302.372 (6) (a) of the statutes; relating to: extending the time 2 period for counties to seek reimbursement from prisoners for expenses 3 associated with confinement in jail.

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a county may seek, from a person who is sentenced to a county jail or placed on probation and confined in jail, reimbursement for certain expenses it incurs in relation to the crime for which the person was sentenced to or confined in jail. These expenses include the daily cost of maintaining the person in jail, costs incurred to investigate the person's financial status, and other moneys the county spends in order to collect payment of those expenses from the person. Current law allows the county 12 months after the person is released from jail to commence a civil action in circuit court for reimbursement of the expenses.

This law extends, from 12 months to 24 months, the time in which a county may commence a civil action for reimbursement of its expenses from a person who is released from jail.
