Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law prohibits smoking in most indoor locations that are not private residences, including lodging establishments. Current law defines “smoking” to mean burning or holding, or inhaling or exhaling smoke from, any lighted smoking equipment containing tobacco including a cigar, cigarette, or pipe.

This bill specifies that the term “smoking,” for purposes of the general prohibition against smoking in indoor locations, includes inhaling or exhaling vapor or a vaporized solution from an electronic device.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

5 SECTION 1. 101.123 (1) (h) (intro.) of the statutes is amended to read:
6 101.123 (1) (h) (intro.) “Smoking” means ~~burning~~ any of the following:
