Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

This bill creates, for student entrepreneurs, an exemption to the $130 initial filing fee for articles of organization to form a limited liability company. The fee exemption is available to students enrolled in postsecondary institutions in this state. The exemption is available to these students who form a limited liability company as a business start-up.

For further information see the state fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:
