251.08 Appellate jurisdiction. The supreme court shall have and exercise an appellate jurisdiction only, except when otherwise specially provided by law or the constitution, which shall extend to all matters of appeal, error or complaint from the decisions or judgments of any of the circuit courts, county courts or other courts of record and shall extend to all questions of law which may arise in said courts upon a motion for a new trial, in arrest of judgment, or in cases reserved by said courts.

251.09 Discretionary reversal. In any action or proceeding brought to the supreme court by appeal or writ of error, if it shall appear to that court from the record, that the real controversy has not been fully tried, or that it is probable that justice has for any reason miscarried, the supreme court may in its discretion reverse the judgment or order appealed from, regardless of the question whether proper motions, objections, or exceptions appear in the record or not, and may also, in case of reversal, direct the entry of the proper judgment or remit the case to the trial court for a new trial, and direct the making of such amendments in the pleadings and the adoption of such procedure in that court, not inconsistent with the statutes governing legal procedure, as shall be deemed necessary to accomplish the ends of justice.

Cross Reference: For reversible error, see 274.37.

251.10 Original writs; writs in vacation. In addition to the writs mentioned in section 3 of article 7 of the constitution the supreme court shall have power to issue writs of prohibition, supersedeas, procedendo and all other writs and process not specially provided by statute which may be necessary to enforce the due administration of right and justice throughout the state; and any justice of said court in vacation shall, on good cause shown, have power to allow writs of error, supersedeas and certiorari, and also to grant injunctive orders.

251.11 Supreme court; judgments; rules; printed case. (1) The supreme court shall be vested with all power and authority necessary for carrying into complete execution all its judgments and determinations in the matters aforesaid and for the exercise of its jurisdiction as the supreme judicial tribunal of the state, agreeably to the usages and principles of law; and to make, annul, amend, or modify the rules of practice therein from time to time as it shall see fit, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws.

(2) The supreme court may by rule provide that no party in any action or proceeding before the supreme court shall be required to prepare and furnish any printed case or other printed abridgment of the record or of the proceedings theretofore had.

251.12 Issues of fact and assessments of damages. Whenever an issue of fact shall be joined or an assessment of damages by a jury be necessary in any action commenced in the supreme court the court may, in its discretion, send the same to some circuit court and it shall be there determined in the same manner as other issues of fact are tried or assessments made, and return be made thereof as directed by the supreme court; or such court may order a jury of twelve men, qualified to act as jurors in the circuit courts, to try such issue of fact or make such assessment of damages in the supreme court. In either case the supreme court may order a special verdict to be found and returned.

251.13 Jury, how obtained. If a jury be ordered to try an issue or to assess damages in the supreme court it shall be obtained as follows: The court shall direct the sheriff or some disinterested person present to write down thirty-six names of persons required for the jury who are qualified by law to serve as jurors in the circuit courts and not of kin to either party or in any manner interested in the cause; such officer or person shall be first sworn by the court to select such names without partiality to either party; the list being made the parties shall alternately strike out a name until the names of twelve jurors only are left, and if either refuse or neglect to strike out on his part the court or clerk may strike in his stead; a venire, containing the names of the jurors thus selected and directed to such sheriff as the court shall designate, shall be issued to such sheriff, who shall forthwith proceed to summon the jury therein named. If any such jurors shall not be found, or fail to appear according to the summons, or be discharged by the court upon any legal objection or for other cause the court shall direct the sheriff to summon a sufficient number of talesmen to supply the deficiency. The court shall have the same power to punish any juror who shall refuse or neglect to appear in obedience to the summons as is conferred upon the circuit court.

251.14 Decisions to be written; part of record; certified to United States court; printed for justices. The supreme court shall give their decisions in all cases in writing, which shall be filed with the other papers in the case; and such decisions and all decisions and opinions delivered by the court or any justice thereof in relation to any action or proceeding pending in said court shall remain in the office of the clerk. Every written opinion or decision of the supreme court which shall have been filed with the clerk shall constitute and be held a part of the record in the action or proceeding in which it shall have been given and filed and shall be certified therewith to any court of the United States to which such action or proceeding or the record thereof may be in any manner certified or removed. The state printer shall print for the use of the justices so many of such decisions and opinions, and at such times, as shall be directed by them.

[251.15 Stats. 1947 repealed by 1949 c. 52]

251.16 Opinion to be sent to trial court on reversal. Whenever the judgment or determination of any inferior court shall be reversed, in whole or in part, by the supreme court or an action or proceeding is remanded to the court below for a new trial or for further proceedings the clerk of the supreme court shall transmit to the clerk of the court below, with the remittitur, a certified copy of the opinion of the supreme court therein; and his fees therefor shall be taxed and allowed with his other fees in the case.

251.17 Proceedings in criminal cases on reversal. Whenever any judgment in a criminal action shall be removed by a writ of error to the supreme court and such court shall reverse such judgment because of any defect, illegality or irregularity in the proceedings in such case subsequent to the rendition of the verdict of the jury therein it shall be competent for the supreme court either to pronounce the proper judgment or to remit the record to the court below in order that such court may pronounce the proper judgment.

251.18 Rules of pleading and practice. The supreme court of the state of Wisconsin shall, by rules promulgated by it from time to time, regulate pleading, practice and procedure in judicial proceedings in all courts of Wisconsin, for the purpose of simplifying the same and of promoting the speedy determination of litigation upon its merits. Such rules shall not abridge, enlarge or modify the substantive rights of any litigant. Such rules shall not become effective until sixty days after their adoption by said court. All such rules shall be printed by the state printer and paid for out of the state treasury, and the court shall direct the same to be distributed as it may deem proper. All statutes relating to pleading, practice and procedure shall have force and effect only as rules of court and shall remain in effect unless and until modified or suspended by rules promulgated pursuant hereto. No rule modifying or suspending such statutory rules shall be adopted until the court has held a public hearing with reference thereto, notice of which shall be given by publication for four successive weeks in the official state paper, the expense of such publication to be paid out of the state treasury. Nothing in this section shall abridge the right of the legislature to enact, modify or repeal statutes or rules relating to pleading, practice or procedure. The attorney-general of Wisconsin, the revisor of statutes, the chairmen of the judiciary committees of the senate and of the assembly, a member of the board of circuit judges, and a member of the board of county judges, selected by those boards annually, the president of the Wisconsin state bar association and three members of the said bar association, elected by said association annually, shall constitute an advisory committee whose duty it shall be to observe and to study the administration of justice in the courts of Wisconsin and to advise the supreme court from time to time as to changes in rules of pleading, practice and procedure which will, in its judgment, simplify procedure and promote the speedy determination of litigation upon its merits. The members of said committee shall receive no compensation, but shall be reimbursed out of the state treasury for expenses necessarily and actually incurred by them in attending meetings of said committee outside the county of their residence.

251.19 Attorney-general may have cases printed. In all state cases to be argued in the supreme court by the attorney-general he may, in his discretion, require to be printed by the state printer, when necessary, copies of or abstracts from the record and his arguments and brief, and in any criminal case, the case and brief or briefs of any poor and indigent defendant; and the account therefor shall be paid out of the state treasury and charged to the appropriation created by subsection (2) of section 20.08 of the statutes for the attorney-general.

251.20 Seal. The supreme court shall have a seal and may direct and from time to time alter the inscription and devices thereon; and the director of purchases shall procure such seal as may be ordered. The seal of the court now in use shall be the seal thereof until another shall be provided hereunder.

251.21 Duties of clerk. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the supreme court:

(1) To have and keep the custody of the seal of the court and all books, records and papers thereof, and of all writs, proceedings and papers in any action therein.

(2) To receive and safely keep and pay over or deliver, according to law or the order of the court, all moneys or property deposited or placed in his possession as such clerk.

251.22 Fees and per diem of clerk. The supreme court shall fix such fees for the services of the clerk as to the court shall seem proper, except when otherwise provided by law. The clerk shall also receive from the state, in addition to his fees, five dollars per day during the actual sessions of the court. The amount for per diem and for all fees allowed by law to the clerk of the supreme court in criminal and state cases accompanied by an itemized bill of costs in each case, shall, on being fixed and allowed by the justices of the court or a majority of them, be paid semiannually in the months of June and December out of the state treasury.

251.23 Costs in supreme court. (1) DISCRETIONARY ITEMS. In the supreme court, excepting criminal actions, costs shall be in the discretion of the court. In any civil action or proceeding brought to the court by appeal or writ of error, the prevailing party shall recover costs unless the court shall otherwise order, and such costs, unless fixed at a lower sum by the court, shall be as follows: The fees of the clerk, twenty-five dollars attorney's fees, the fees of the clerk below for transmitting and certifying the record, including the sum paid for necessary copies of the minutes of the reporter procured for record preparatory to an appeal, settling the bill of exceptions and the sum paid for printing cases and briefs not exceeding one dollar per page and in all not exceeding one hundred and fifty pages.

RULES OF PRACTICE IN THE SUPREME COURT.

[Adopted June 10, 1942, effective July 1, 1942, as amended]

Revisor's Note: The rules of the supreme court governing practice in that court are printed here at the end of chapter 251, entitled "Supreme Court" because those rules have the force of law, are in constant use and should be easily available. The court's numbering and headings are retained, but for convenience in indexing and for reference, these rules are given additional numbers (in brackets) in harmony with the decimal numbering system used in the statutes. The court's comments on these revised rules will be printed in the 1950 Wisconsin Annotations, preceding 251.251. The supreme court rules in force in 1930 are printed in the 1930 Wisconsin Annotations, beginning at page 1797, with extensive notes.

- (1) Summons or other process.
- (2) Proof of service.
- (3) Complaint, petition, relation, or affidavit initiating the proceeding, with the date of service.
- (4) Answer or demurrer, with date of service.
- (5) Reply, demurrer, election to take issue, with date of service.
- (6) Orders material to the appeal, and papers upon which they are based.
- (7) The verdict, findings of the court or referee, with orders based thereon, and opinion of the court, if any.
- (8) Final determination.
- (9) Any order made after judgment, material to the appeal, and the papers upon which the same is based.
- (10) Bill of exceptions. Each exhibit shall have on it the name of the plaintiff and defendant and each photograph attached to or returned with the bill of exceptions shall have in addition either upon its face or upon its reverse side or upon a slip attached to it, a statement giving the page of the record where the photograph is referred to, a statement of the position of the camera, distance from the object photographed, the direction in which the camera was pointed and such further information as may be appropriate.
- (11) Writ of error or notice of appeal, with the bond or undertaking.
- (12) Certificate of the clerk to the return. Such record or transcript shall be consecutively pagged on the left-hand margin.

[251.252] Rule 2. The record or transcript shall not be accompanied by any paper, other than those specified, or which is not part of the record proper.

[251.253] Rule 3. The return to any writ of error or certiorari shall be by certified copy of the record unless the trial court shall order the original papers to be returned.

[251.2531] Rule 3a. (Adopted April 1, 1944) When the questions presented for decision by an appeal can be determined without an examination of all the pleadings, evidence and proceedings in the court below, in lieu of a record and transcript thereof as required by Rule 1, the parties may prepare and sign a statement of the case showing how the questions for decision arose and were decided in the trial court and setting forth only so many of the facts averred and proved or sought to be proved as are essential to a decision of the questions involved by the supreme court. The statement shall include a copy of the judgment or order appealed from, a copy of the notice of appeal with undertaking (or evidence of deposit or waiver of undertaking), filing date and a concise statement of the points to be relied upon by the appellant. If the statement conforms to the truth, it together with such additions as the court may consider necessary fully to present the questions raised by the appeal shall be approved by the trial court and shall then be certified to the supreme court as the record on appeal.

[251.254] Rule 4. (As amended April 1, 1944) The appellant or plaintiff in error shall cause the proper return to be made to and filed in this court within 20 days after perfecting the appeal or filing the writ.

[251.255] Rule 5. In case of a defective return, either party may, upon motion, have an order for a further return.

CHAPTER II.

BRIEFS AND APPENDICES.

[251.26] Rule 6. In calendar causes the appellant or plaintiff in error shall print a brief and appendix in conformity with the following rules:

(1) The front flyleaves of every brief shall contain an index including a synopsis or brief resume of the argument with page references followed by a list of all statutes, cases and other authorities referred to, the cases alphabetically arranged, together with references to the pages where the statutes, cases and other authorities are cited. (For illustration see 200 Wis. 530.)

(2) The brief shall be entitled in the cause, and following the title there shall be a statement whether an order or judgment is appealed from, the name of the trial court and the name of the trial judge, the date of the commencement of the action and the date when the judgment or order appealed from was entered. On the following page the question or questions involved on appeal or writ of error shall be stated briefly without detail or discussion, without names, dates, amounts or particulars of any kind. Following each question there shall be a statement indicating whether the question was affirmed, negatived, qualified or unanswered by the court below. If a qualified answer was given to the question the appellant or plaintiff in error shall indicate briefly the nature of the qualification or if the question was not answered and the record shows the reason for such failure, the reason shall be stated briefly in each instance without quoting the court below. The questions and statements in their entirety should ordinarily not exceed 20 lines and should rarely exceed one page and no other matter shall appear on the page with the statement. (In substance the question or questions should contain the type of matter found in the syllabus to a case. The question or questions should state what is to be decided,—the syllabus states what has been decided.)

(3) After the statement of the questions involved, the facts shall be stated in a clear and concise manner eliminating all immaterial details. Reference shall be made to the page of the appendix for each statement of fact made in the brief as to which there is a possibility of dispute. If reference is made to the record, the page of the record shall be given. When a question raised upon appeal involves a statute so much thereof as is necessary to a decision of the case shall be printed at length.

(4) The statement of facts shall be followed by argument in support of the position of the appellant or plaintiff in error with citations of authority.

(5) (As amended April 1, 1944) In addition to the brief, the appellant or plaintiff in error shall print an appendix or in lieu of it the statement of the case (Rule 3a). The appendix shall contain:

(a) The opinion or decision of the trial court.

(b) Such part and only such part of the pleadings, findings, verdict, judgment or order sought to be reviewed as may be material in the consideration on appeal of the questions stated.

(c) (As amended April 1, 1944) An abridgment of the bill of exceptions or record as the case may be but only so much thereof as is necessary and material to a consideration of the questions involved. The abridgment of the testimony shall be in narrative form with marginal page references to the record. Asterisks or other appropriate means shall be used to indicate omissions in the instructions of the court or in the testimony of witnesses. The names of the witnesses whose testimony is referred to shall be given and shall be properly indexed at the end of the appendix.

(d) All exhibits whether printed or not shall be indexed at the end of the appendix, with reference to the page of the record and if printed in the appendix, the page of the appendix where the same may be found. The nature of the contents of the exhibit shall be briefly stated in the index.

(e) The brief and appendix shall be bound together unless the appendix exceeds 100 pages, in which case it may be bound as a separate volume.

[251.261] Rule 7. The brief of the respondent shall contain:

(1) Upon the front flyleaf an index including a synopsis or brief resume of the argument followed by a list of all statutes, cases and other authorities referred to, the cases alphabetically arranged, together with references to the pages where the statutes, cases and other authorities are cited. (For illustration see 200 Wis. 538.)

(2) The title to the cause following which there shall be a statement of the questions involved so far as the respondent disagrees with the statement of the questions involved made by the appellant or plaintiff in error.

(3) A statement of such facts and only such facts as are necessary to correct or amplify the statement of facts made by the appellant or plaintiff in error in his brief. Reference shall be made to the page of the appendix or to the record for each statement of fact made. The propositions and argument of the appellant or plaintiff in error shall be replied to so far as practicable in the order in which such propositions or argument are presented in the brief of the appellant or plaintiff in error. Additional propositions may be advanced when necessary to a complete presentation of respondent's position.

(4) (As amended April 1, 1944) A supplemental appendix containing an abridgment of such portions of the bill of exceptions or record as the case may be which the respondent deems necessary and material to a consideration of the questions involved and which have not been printed in the appendix of the appellant or plaintiff in error. As to form and substance the supplemental appendix shall conform to Rule 6 (5) (c).

(5) Such exhibits or parts of exhibits not printed by the appellant or plaintiff in error as respondent may desire to bring to the attention of the court. These shall be indexed, the page of the record where they are described given and the nature of the contents of the exhibit shall be briefly stated in the index at the end of the appendix.

(6) Ordinarily the brief and supplemental appendix shall be bound in one volume. If the supplemental appendix exceeds 100 pages it may be bound as a separate volume.

[251.262] Rule 8. The appellant or plaintiff in error may file a reply brief and set forth in an additional appendix thereto such parts of the record or such exhibits as he may wish the court to read in view of the parts printed by the respondent in the supplemental appendix to his brief.

[251.263] Rule 9. Reference to the appendix printed by the appellant or plaintiff in error may be indicated by A-Ap. p. 2. The appendix printed by the respondent may be referred to as A-R. p. 2.

[251.264] Rule 10. Costs will be allowed of course only for the printing of briefs which do not exceed 50 pages exclusive of the appendix. Costs for printing pages of a brief in excess of 50 pages will be allowed only upon special permission of the court, application for which shall appear on the flyleaf of the brief or following the index. Where it satisfactorily appears that the rules relating to the preparation and printing of a brief, including the appendix, have been flagrantly disregarded or there is an absence of a good-faith attempt to comply therewith the court may in its discretion deny to or impose costs against the offending party or strike his brief from the files.

[251.265] Rule 11. (As amended April 1, 1944) Briefs, appendices and statements of the case shall be printed plainly with black ink in type not smaller than 10 point nor larger than 12 point and leaded with a 2 point lead, on eggshell paper, properly paged at the top, with the printed portion of a page 7 inches long and 3 and one-half inches wide centered in a page trimmed to a size 7 inches wide by 9 inches long and saddle-stitched when practicable, bound in a paper or cloth cover, having the title and calendar number of the case and designation of the brief printed in appropriate type on the outside, and shall be signed by counsel presenting the same. If special permission is given to file typewritten memorandum or reply briefs, they must conform to the size page above stated, viz.—7 by 9 inches.

CHAPTER III.

SERVICE OF PAPERS.

[251.27] Rule 14. Service of all papers may be made by mail, postage prepaid, properly addressed to the person to be served; 2 days being allowed for transmission where the route is wholly by railroad and an additional day for every 50 miles other than by railroad.

[251.271] Rule 15. Every notice of a motion shall be served on the opposite party at least 8 days before the making of the motion.

[251.272] Rule 16. (As amended April 1, 1944) Within 10 days after the commencement of the August term, the clerk shall prepare and cause to be printed a calendar of the causes then on the calendar, arranging all civil causes in the order of their filing, and arranging all criminal causes in their order at the foot. During the term he shall when directed by the court prepare and print a list of the causes subsequently filed.

Not less than 60 days before any case shall be set for argument the clerk shall send to every attorney appearing in a case a warning notice that his case is subject to call for argument on and after a stated date. Not less than 30 days before the time set for argument of cases on an assignment, the clerk shall send to each attorney appearing in any case on the assignment a list of such cases stating the day on which each case will be called for argument. As soon as practicable after the first day of the term, the clerk shall send to each attorney appearing in any case on the calendar, a list of all cases appearing thereon, and thereafter when printed, lists of the cases subsequently filed.

[251.273] Rule 17. (As amended September 17, 1942.) Not less than 40 days before the time set for argument, the appellant or plaintiff in error shall serve 3 copies of his brief and appendix upon the opposite party. Not less than 20 days before the time set for argument the opposite party shall serve upon the appellant or the plaintiff in error 3 copies of his brief and supplemental appendix, if any. Not less than 10 days before the calling of the case for argument the appellant or plaintiff in error may serve a reply brief and additional appendix, if any, upon the opposite party. No brief shall be served or received except as provided unless permission be first granted. Twenty copies of each brief and each appendix, together with proof of service thereof, shall be filed not later than 5 days before the time set for argument.

[251.274] Rule 18. (Adopted April 1, 1944) In criminal cases except where the state is appellant, service of brief and appendix of appellant or plaintiff in error shall be upon the attorney-general. Briefs and appendices in criminal cases, including service thereof, shall be governed by the rules that apply to civil cases except that appendices may be dispensed with by stipulation of the parties or by order of the court.

[251.276] Rule 20. Any cause on the state calendar may be put on any assignment by consent or when either party has given 10 days' written notice to the other party before the assignment has been ordered made up.

[251.277] Rule 21. The time prescribed by these rules for any act, except for the making of a motion for a rehearing, may be enlarged by the court for cause, on motion.

CHAPTER IV.

CALENDAR AND ASSIGNMENTS.

[251.28] Rule 22. (As amended April 1, 1944 and April 12, 1949) All causes in which the record shall have been filed on and after March 1 in each year and prior to March 1 in the succeeding year, are assigned to the August calendar of the current year in the order in which the records are filed in the office of the clerk of the court. Any cause may be placed upon the current calendar or advanced for hearing at any time in which it is shown that the interests of the state, the people at large, or of any municipality are affected, or an important constitutional question is seriously raised, or an extraordinary exigency is involved, and it is further shown that delay would be prejudicial to the accomplishment of justice.

CHAPTER VII.

COSTS AND PENALTIES.

[251.44] Rule 44. No costs shall be taxed for printing briefs and appendices unless affirmative proof is made that they were served and filed within the time prescribed by the rules. (See also Rule 10 and sec. 251.23 Stats.)

[251.45] Rule 45. No costs of printing shall be allowed for any brief containing a manifest miscitation of authority or a palpably misleading quotation from any opinion or textbook, not corrected by the author before submission of the cause.

[251.46] Rule 46. (As amended April 1, 1944) When the brief is not served within the time and in the manner required by these rules, the opposite party if not in default, shall be entitled to a continuance for such time as the court may determine with costs in the discretion of the court or the court may direct the cause to stand for argument and charge the penalty named to the defaulting party by denying costs to that amount in case such party prevails and by adding it to the other costs if such party does not prevail.

[251.47] Rule 47. Where a party fails to procure and file the proper return, the opposing party may move to dismiss the writ or the appeal, with taxable costs, including attorney's fees of $25.

In case such motion be made during a recess of the court the chief justice may make the proper order or judgment thereon with the same effect as if made by the court in session.

[251.48] Rule 48. When a proper return shall have been filed before the final determination of a motion to dismiss for want of such return, the motion may be denied upon payment of costs by the opposite party, in the discretion of the court, not exceeding $25.

[251.49] Rule 49. When a supplemental return is ordered upon application of a party, and the defect in the original return is attributable to the fault of the opposing party, the court may, in its discretion, order costs to be paid to the moving party, not exceeding $25; payment to be enforced as directed.

[251.50] Rule 50. No costs shall be taxed for printing any brief containing matter disrespectful to this court, or the trial court, or to opposing counsel; and the court will not consider such a brief, and of its own motion will strike it from the files.

[251.51] Rule 51. If an attorney, in addressing the court, indulges in language disrespectful to this court, or to the trial court, or to the opposing counsel or party, he will be prohibited from further addressing the court in the cause, without prejudice to any other proceeding to inflict punishment for such misconduct.

[251.52] Rule 52. When a motion for a rehearing, or a motion in the nature of a motion for a rehearing, is denied, costs will be allowed to the prevailing party, consisting of clerk's fees, necessary disbursements, and an attorney's fee, to be fixed in view of the facts and circumstances of each case, but not to exceed the sum of $25.

[251.53] Rule 53. When it shall be necessary on a motion for a rehearing to examine any question not theretofore presented in the briefs, or to examine further any question theretofore presented, and the motion be denied, the attorney's fee of the prevailing party shall not exceed $10, unless a question of more than ordinary difficulty be presented.

CHAPTER VIII.

[251.55] Rule 55. All causes which have been pending in this court for two years, wherein no record has been filed, may be dismissed without notice, upon payment of the clerk's fees.

[251.56] Rule 56. Except in state cases no record shall be filed unless $10 is deposited with the clerk, to be applied on his fees, which deposit shall be recovered from the opposing party if appellant prevails and be credited to him on the judgment if the opposing party prevails.

[251.57] Rule 57. The appellant shall have the right to open and close the argument in all cases, whether legal or equitable.

[251.58] Rule 58. When a judgment is reversed, the cause, if tried by the court, will ordinarily be remanded for final judgment, and if tried before a jury, for a new trial; but if it appear in a jury cause that there has been a full trial and that justice will be best subserved by the direction of a judgment, the cause will be remanded for final disposition according to the right of the matter, whether such judgment will have the formal verdict of a jury as a basis therefor or not.

[251.59] Rule 59. Upon a continuance for favor, the opposing party shall be entitled to costs, not exceeding $25, unless such continuance shall have been made necessary through the fault of such party, in which case such party may be denied costs, and costs may be imposed on him, in the court's discretion, for the benefit of the moving party, not exceeding $25.

[251.60] Rule 60. For infraction of any of the rules of this court, for which no penalty is expressly provided, the offending party may be mulcted in costs, in the court's discretion, for the benefit of the opposing party.

[251.61] Rule 61. If through mistake, inadvertence or excusable neglect the appeal shall not have been perfected, or the bill of exceptions be not properly certified so as to permit a decision of the questions presented for review, the appellant will be given reasonable opportunity to correct the error, on such terms as may be just.

[251.62] Rule 62. [Repealed April 1, 1944]

[251.63] Rule 63. All maps, exhibits or models constructed or intended for the mere purpose of illustrating the issues in any action or proceeding pending in this court

[251.64] Rule 64. In cases where the order or judgment is affirmed, opinions will not hereafter be written unless the questions involved be deemed by this court of such special importance or difficulty as to demand treatment of an opinion. A table of the cases affirmed without opinion, containing the titles, statement of the nature of each, the courts from which they came, dates there and here decided, and names of respective counsel, shall be printed in the Reports.

[251.65] Rule 65. (As amended December 22, 1947) Applications by attorneys of other states for admission to this court, together with the proofs entitling them to admission, must be filed with the clerk at least 60 days before they are acted upon. Each applicant for admission to the bar pursuant to the provisions of section 256.28 (3) shall at the time of filing his application, deposit with the clerk of the supreme court currency, draft, cashier's check or certified check in the sum of $50 payable to bearer, to cover the expenses of such investigation as may be necessary to satisfy the court that he is of good moral character and has been engaged in the actual practice of the law in the state or territory from which he comes for the required period. Such portion of the deposit as is not used for the purpose stated will be returned to the applicant.

Application blanks will be furnished by the clerk upon request.

[251.66] Rule 66. The foregoing rules shall take effect on the first day of July, 1942, except that counsel appearing in cases on the August, 1942 calendar may at their option in the preparation of those cases conform to the rules as they were prior to the revision. In cases appearing on the January, 1943 calendar and subsequent calendars, all briefs and appendices shall be prepared in conformity with these rules.

On and after July 1, 1942, all formal rules of practice in this court heretofore adopted shall cease to be in force but rules of practice established in the decisions of the court not inconsistent with these rules shall remain in force as heretofore.
